Park City, Utah

Home to two major ski destinations—Deer Valley Resort and Park City Mountain—Park City, a quintessential mountain town, is the inspiring backdrop to life at Talisker Club. From its bustling Main Street, lined with upscale shops and best-in-class dining, Park City is host to the annual Sundance Film Festival and the 2002 Winter Olympics. The town will also participate with Salt Lake City in representing the U.S. in bidding for the 2030 Winter Olympics.

Only 35 minutes from Salt Lake City International Airport, one of the west's major airline hubs with national and international access, and presenting an endless offering of vibrant year-round activities, Park City is a picturesque mountain town with the exuberance of a big city.
