What do you love about your home?

What I love about this home is its cozy, comfortable feeling and the practical layout. I've enjoyed the neighborhood and all the friendly neighbors. Its located in a convient location close to shopping, schools + parks. The new landscaping has brought a no maintenance aspect to the home as well. I've made lots of memories here and its been such a special place to call home for 30+ years.