

WOODHAVEN COUNTRY CLUB – Community Focused Activity and Connection

Woodhaven Country Club is known for its welcoming atmosphere and active community life. Residents enjoy a lifestyle that combines recreation, social gatherings, and the relaxed pace of desert living. Many homeowners participate in club activities throughout the season, creating an environment where neighbors regularly connect and spend time together.

Golf and Club Events

Golf is an important part of life at Woodhaven. The course supports both casual play and organized events during the season. Activities often include member tournaments, men's and women's golf club events, member-member competitions, club championships, and instructional clinics. These events help bring residents together and contribute to the social side of the club.

Racquet Sports and Recreation

Woodhaven also offers opportunities for recreation and exercise with tennis courts, pickleball courts, fitness facilities, and swimming pools. Many residents participate in both casual play and organized matches throughout the season.

Homeowner Association Services

Ownership at Woodhaven includes a homeowner's association that helps simplify day-to-day ownership by covering many shared services and exterior responsibilities. HOA services generally include exterior building maintenance, roof maintenance, exterior painting, common area landscaping, trash service, cable television and internet service, as well as some insurances for the buildings. Residents also enjoy access to the community's clubhouse, pools and spas, fitness facilities, tennis courts, and pickleball courts.

Resident Golf Membership

Golf membership at Woodhaven is optional for homeowners and visitors with a membership structure allowing enjoyment to a full country club golf experience while remaining competitive among country club communities throughout the Coachella Valley. Residents who choose to join have access to golf play, tournaments, and club events while also enjoying the broader social and recreational amenities of the community.

The Clubhouse and Social Life

The clubhouse serves as a gathering place for residents throughout the year. Homeowners meet there for dining nights, social events, seasonal celebrations, and club activities. These gatherings help create the friendly and social environment that Woodhaven residents value.

Location and Access to the Coachella Valley Lifestyle

Woodhaven Country Club is close to many of the area's cultural, entertainment, and recreational opportunities throughout the desert cities. Its central location allows residents to enjoy the broader Coachella Valley lifestyle while returning home to the relaxed setting of a residential country club community.
