12. BROKER'S AND RPO'S DUTIES:

- A. BROKER RESPONSIBILITY, AUTHORITY AND LIMITATIONS: Broker agrees to exercise reasonable effort and due diligence to achieve the purposes of this Agreement. Unless RPO gives Broker written instructions to the contrary, Broker is authorized to advertise and market the Premises in any medium, selected by Broker including MLS and the Internet and, to the extent permitted by these media, including MLS, control the dissemination of the information submitted to any medium. If Broker uses a digitally altered image ("DAI") in an advertisement or other promotional material to market the Property for leases over a year, Broker must comply with Business & Professions Code § 10140.8 as follows: (i) by including a reasonably conspicuous statement located on or adjacent to the DAI stating that the image is altered and also clearly identifying that the original, unaltered image can be accessed via a link to a publicly-accessible internet website, URL, or QR code; and (ii) if the DAI is posted on an internet website controlled by Broker or Broker's agent, Broker may satisfy Broker's legal obligation by either complying with paragraph 12A(i) above or by including the unaltered version along with the DAI posting. For details on what qualifies as DAI – and for examples of image enhancements that are not considered DAI – see Business & Professions Code §10140.8.

Form RPOI) within 3 Days of request by Broker (or attached).
- C. RPO is responsible for determining at what price and terms to list and lease or rent the Premises. RPO, but NOT Broker, is responsible for compliance with all health and safety legal requirements, such as but not limited to smoke alarm and carbon monoxide detector installation, and water heater bracing.
- D. INDEMNITY: RPO agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Broker and all persons in Broker's firm, as permitted by law, from all costs, expenses, suits, claims, liabilities, damages, judgments, and claims of every type, including but not limited to those arising out of injury or death of any person, or damage to any real or personal property of any person, including RPO, (i) for those acts relating to the leasing of the Property by Broker, or any person operating through Broker's license, or the performance or exercise of any of the duties, powers, or authorities granted to Broker; (ii) from any incorrect or incomplete information supplied by RPO; (iii) from any material facts that RPO knows but fails to disclose including dangerous or hidden conditions on the Premises, and (iv) actions brought by the Department of Fair Employment and Housing or other government regulatory body. This paragraph shall apply to all actions and claims, including those arising out of Broker's negligence but not to the willful misconduct or gross negligence of Broker and shall extend to claims occurring after this Agreement is terminated as well as while it is in force. RPO's obligations under this paragraph will not be limited by insurance requirements or by any other provision of this Agreement.

13. AGENCY RELATIONSHIPS:

- A. Disclosure: If the listing is for a tenancy in excess of one year or compensation is owed to Broker under paragraph 3F, RPO acknowledges receipt of the "Disclosure Regarding Agency Real Estate Relationship" form (C.A.R. Form AD).
- B. RPO Representation: Broker shall represent RPO in any resulting transaction, except as specified in paragraph 3H.
- C. Possible Dual Agency With Tenant: Depending upon the circumstances, it may be necessary or appropriate for Broker to act as an agent for both RPO and Tenant. If a Tenant is procured directly by Broker or an associate licensee in Broker's firm, RPO hereby consents to Broker acting as a dual agent for RPO and such Tenant.

RPO consents to Broker's representation of RPOs and tenants of other properties before, during and after the end of this Agreement.
- E. Confirmation: If the Premises includes residential property with one to four dwelling units, and the agreed-upon lease is for a tenancy in excess of one year, Broker shall confirm the agency relationship described above, or as modified, in writing, prior to or coincident with RPO's and Tenant's execution of such lease.
- F. Termination of Agency Relationship: RPO acknowledges and agrees that unless RPO and Broker enter into a separate property management agreement, Broker will not represent RPO in any manner regarding the management of the Premises. RPO further agrees that the representation duties of, and agency relationship with, Broker terminate at the earlier of (i) or (ii) Below:

(i) Entering into a rental or lease agreement for the Premises and, if checked, (choose all that apply) Tenant occupancy, delivering to Tenant keys or other means of entering the Premises, Tenant walkthrough, completion of Move In Inspection (such as C.A.R. Form MII or comparable form agreed-to by the parties); or (ii) If no lease is already entered into, at the expiration of this Agreement.

14. ATTORNEY'S FEES: In any action, proceeding or arbitration between RPO and Broker arising out of this Agreement, RPO and Broker shall be responsible for paying their own attorney's fees and costs except as provided in paragraph 15A.

- A. MEDIATION: (1) RPO and Broker agree to mediate any dispute or claim arising between them regarding the obligation to pay compensation under this Agreement, before resorting to arbitration or court action. (2) Mediation fees, if any, shall be divided equally among the parties involved. (3) If, for any dispute or claim to which this paragraph applies, any party (i) commences an action without first attempting to resolve the matter through mediation, or (ii) before commencement of an action, refuses to mediate after a request has been made, and that party is the losing party in any such action, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover attorney fees, notwithstanding paragraph 14. Exclusions from this mediation agreement are specified in paragraph 15B.

The filing of a court action to enable the recording of a notice of pending action, for order of attachment, receivership, injunction, or other provisional remedies, shall not constitute a waiver or violation of the mediation provisions.
- C. ADVISORY: If RPO and Broker desire to resolve disputes arising between them through arbitration rather than court, they can document their agreement by attaching and signing an Arbitration Agreement (C.A.R. Form ARB).

16. MANAGEMENT APPROVAL: If a salesperson or broker-associate enters this Agreement on Broker's behalf, Broker/Manager has the right to cancel this Agreement, in writing, within 5 calendar days after its execution.

RENTAL PROPERTY OWNER ADVISORY

(C.A.R. Form RPOA, Revised 12/25)

Whether you already own, or you intend to purchase, property to be used as a rental, there are many issues you need to consider. This Rental Property Owner Advisory (C.A.R. Form RPOA) is intended to address legal and practical issues impacting rental property owners, whether they are new to the business or they have prior or existing experience. This Advisory will focus on rental property intended for occupancy of 30 or more days. Rental property owners intending to rent out property for periods of 30 or fewer days should review the Short Term (Vacation) Rental Advisory (C.A.R. Form SVRA).

1. LIMITATIONS ON ABILITY TO SET RENTAL RATES AND EVICT TENANTS:

- A. LOCAL RENT AND EVICTION CONTROL LAWS: Many local jurisdictions, either city or county or both, do now, or may in the future, impose restrictions that limit the rent that can be charged to a tenant, regulate the right of a housing provider to terminate a tenancy and the costs to do so, and establish consequences of terminating a tenancy unlawfully. Additionally, some jurisdictions require notification or registration any time a property is leased or rented. Even if property that is currently vacant was previously tenant-occupied, the termination of that previous tenancy may affect a new tenant or buyer's rights such as the legal use of the property and who may occupy the property in the future.
- B. STATE OF CALIFORNIA TENANT PROTECTION ACT ("TPA") (Civil Code §§ 1946.2, 1947.12, and 1947.13):
- (1) Description: The TPA is a statewide law in California that: (i) imposes limits on the amount a property owner can increase rent to a residential tenant ("Rent Cap"); and (ii) identifies a limited number of reasons that a property owner may terminate a tenancy and evict a tenant ("Just Cause").
 - (2) Exemptions: Exemptions exist to both the Rent Cap and Just Cause laws under the TPA.
 - (A) The most common exemptions from both rent cap and just cause eviction laws are:
 - (i) Separately alienable single-family dwellings, including a condominium, as long as the property is not owned by a corporation; a limited liability company with a corporate member; or a real estate investment trust. For this exemption to apply, the Housing Provider must first give the tenant applicable notice of the exemption and incorporate such notice into the rental agreement for all new leases and renewals (See Rent Cap and Just Cause Addendum, C.A.R. Form RCJC);
 - (ii) Dwellings built in the previous 15 years prior to the property being leased or rented or from any notice being given; and
 - (iii) A duplex in which one of the units was owner occupied at the commencement and throughout the tenancy.
 - (B) Additional exemptions that only apply to the just cause eviction rules under the TPA include:
 - (i) Single family, owner occupied residences in which the owner rents no more than two units or bedrooms, including accessory dwelling units or junior accessory dwelling units; and
 - (ii) Housing accommodations in which the tenant shares bathroom or kitchen facilities with the owner. Other exemptions may be applicable.

- 2. HABITABILITY AND UPKEEP: A rental property owner has an obligation to make the property fit for occupancy and shall repair all subsequent dilapidations that make the property untenantable. Among other requirements, a property is untenantable if it lacks any of the following characteristics: Effective waterproofing and weather protection of the roof, walls, windows and doors; plumbing in good working order; hot and cold running water; heating facilities in good working order; electrical lighting in good working order; building and grounds free from debris, filth, rubbish, garbage, rodents and vermin; garbage receptacles, floors, stairways and railings in good repair; and a locking mail receptacle for each unit. The property must have water conserving plumbing fixtures, braced, anchored or strapped water heaters, smoke alarms and carbon monoxide detectors, safety features for pools, and be free of bed bugs. As of January 1, 2026, all new, amended, or extended residential leases must also have a stove and a refrigerator in good working order and not subject to recall under the habitability requirements, except for a few minor exemptions. If a tenant elects to bring their own refrigerator, then tenant shall be responsible for maintenance; but a tenant may request for housing provider to provide a refrigerator with 30 days written notice. (See Rental Property Owner Intake Form, C.A.R. Form RPOI.)

3. DISCLOSURES:

A. STATUTORILY REQUIRED:

- (1) BY CALIFORNIA: Water submeters; methamphetamine contamination orders; periodic pest control treatment; elevated levels of mold; bed bugs; special flood hazard areas; utility submetering; registered sex offenders; military ordnance locations; positive tenant rental payment reporting; rent caps and just cause reasons for evictions.
- (2) BY LOCAL COUNTY OR CITY: Contact your local government for such requirements.
- (3) BY FEDERAL LAW: Lead-based-paint reports, records and renovations.

B. CONTRACTUALLY REQUIRED: Presence of asbestos; homeowner association rules and restrictions; and death on the property.

C. FORM: Rental Property Owner Disclosure (C.A.R. Form RPOD) may be used to satisfy many of these requirements.

4. SECURITY DEPOSITS (California Civil Code § 1950.5):

- A. MAXIMUM AMOUNT: Effective July 1, 2024, for any new tenancy, a residential security deposit may not, in most cases, exceed the equivalent of one-month's rent, whether the property is furnished or unfurnished. Certain housing providers may charge up to two-month's rent for security deposit if the housing provider is a natural person and the housing provider owns no more than two residential rental properties that collectively include no more than four dwelling units. Even if the above exception applies, the one-month limit remains if the tenant is an active member of the armed services. (See Security Deposit Disclosure and Addendum, C.A.R. Form SDDA.)
- B. RETURN TO TENANT: California law requires that housing providers notify the tenants and that tenants be given an opportunity to repair damages to the property prior to termination of tenancy within the last two weeks before the termination (See Pre-Move-Out Inspection, C.A.R. Form PMOI). A housing provider, within 21 days after all tenants have vacated the premises, is required to provide the tenant with an itemization of the deductions made against the security deposit, and return any remaining portion of the security deposit. If any deduction is made from a security deposit, supporting documentation must be provided with the letter itemizing the deduction. If the housing provider received the security deposit or rental payment from the tenant electronically, the housing provider shall return the security deposit electronically to a bank account or other financial institution designated by the tenant in writing. However, if multiple adult tenants reside in the premises, the housing provider shall return any remainder of the security deposit by check made out to all adult tenants on the rental or lease agreement at the time of termination and provide the itemization personally or by first class mail, postage prepaid, to any one of the adult tenants chosen by the housing provider. (See Security Deposit Return, C.A.R. Sample Letter SDR.)

- C. PICTURES OF PROPERTY: Beginning April 1, 2025, a housing provider must, at the end of a tenancy, take pictures of the property after possession is returned but prior to repairs being made, and take pictures of the property after completion or any repairs or cleaning. For tenancies commencing on or after July 1, 2025, pictures must be taken immediately before or at the inception of the tenancy. If any deduction is made for repairs or cleaning, the housing provider shall provide the photographs by mail, email, flash drive, or by providing a link the tenant can use to view the photographs online. (See Move In Inspection and Move Out Inspection, C.A.R. Forms MII and MOI; or Move In Inspection Summary and Move Out Inspection Summary, C.A.R. Forms SUM-MII and SUM-MOI.)
- 5. SCREENING FEES: California law (Civil Code § 1950.6) allows a housing provider to charge an upfront application screening fee in an amount adjusted annually for inflation using the Consumer Price Index. According to the California Apartment Association, in 2024 a housing provider could charge $62.02 per applicant. The ability to retain the screening fee, however, will depend on the housing provider's procedure in screening applicants. A housing provider must abide by one of the following two procedures:
- A. HOUSING PROVIDER DISCLOSES WRITTEN CRITERIA TO A TENANT AT TIME OF APPLICATION:
- (1) In order to retain the screening fees, the housing provider must (i) review applications in the order in which they are received, and (ii) approve the first applicant who meets all the criteria.
 - (2) Housing provider may keep the screening fee from any applicant: (i) whose application is approved; or (ii) whose application is considered and denied, but only because the applicant failed to meet the disclosed written criteria.
 - (3) If the tenant's application is not considered, within 7 days: (i) the screening fee shall be refunded to the applicant; or (ii) the housing provider may offer to apply the screening fee to an application for another rental unit being offered by the housing provider.
- B. HOUSING PROVIDER DOES NOT DISCLOSE WRITTEN CRITERIA AT TIME OF THE TENANT'S APPLICATION OR DOES NOT FOLLOW THE REQUIREMENTS IN PARAGRAPH 5A(1): A housing provider, who does not disclose the written screening criteria to the tenant with the application or does not review applications in order and approve the first qualified tenant, will only be able to keep the screening fee of the applicant whose application is approved. The screening fees collected from all other applicants must be returned by the sooner of these two events: (i) within 7 days of selecting another applicant to be the tenant; or (ii) within 30 days of the date the applicant submitted their application.
- 6. TENANT RENTAL PAYMENT REPORTING: Under California Civil Code § 1954.04, Tenants who rent in a property that has 16 or more units have the right to require the residential rental property owners to make positive reports of a tenant's rental payments to a nationwide credit reporting agency of the owner's choosing. There is no obligation on the part of the owner to make the reports if the property is 15 or fewer units, unless the owner owns two or more rental properties and the owner is a real estate investment trust, a corporation or a limited liability company in which at least one member is a corporation. (See Offer of Tenant Positive Rental Payment Reporting C.A.R. Form TRPR.)
- 7. ASSISTANCE ANIMALS AND PETS:
- A. SERVICE ANIMALS: A qualified service animal under California law is one that is trained to assist the animal owner with a disability-related task. A service animal is not considered a pet under the law. The animal's owner cannot be asked about their disability but may be asked what task the animal has been trained to perform.
- B. SUPPORT OR COMPANION ANIMALS: Sometimes referred to as support animals, or emotional support animals, or companion animals, these animals are not considered pets under the law. The animal's owner cannot be asked about their disability, but the property owner can ask for documentation establishing the need for the animal. The documentation is typically provided by a medical provider, but it is not required to be, and it can be provided by any reliable third party who is in a position to know about the individual's disability or the disability-related need for the support or companion animal.
- C. PETS: An owner can prohibit pets, but may not prohibit an animal that is a service or support or companion animal. A property owner may charge a pet owner a higher security deposit than that charged to a tenant without a pet, provided the security deposit is not increased above the maximum allowed by law, but the owner may not do so to a tenant with a service or support or companion animal. If the security deposit is being raised within the allowable limits, it may be beneficial to continue to term it as security deposit rather than specifying that it is solely a pet deposit.
- D. See Animal Terms and Conditions Addendum (C.A.R. Form ATCA), for further information about what an owner can or cannot require for animals permitted on the property.
- 8. NOTICES: California and in many cases, local governments, have laws addressing how and when a tenant may be given notice to either change the terms of a tenancy or to terminate a tenancy. Courts require strict compliance with these laws and failure to abide by the smallest detail may make the notice invalid and ineffective. Before attempting to provide notices on your own, consult with a qualified California real estate attorney who has experience with landlord-tenant law and the local rules in the area where the property is located.
- 9. INSURANCE:
- A. OBTAINING AND KEEPING: Rental property owners should obtain liability and damage insurance in an amount sufficient to protect their interests. If the rental property owner previously occupied the property, the insurance carrier should be contacted to determine if the insurance policy will provide coverage for the property if it is used as a rental.
- B. BROKER/PROPERTY MANAGER ADDITION TO POLICY: Real estate licensees, whether taking on lease listing or property management responsibilities, do not have insurance coverage for the protection of the rental property owner. Real estate property management agreements will generally include a clause that requires the owner to maintain a minimum amount of public and premises liability insurance coverage and to name the licensee as an additional insured on the policy, and may allow the broker to obtain, at property owner's expense, such coverage. (See Property Management Agreement, C.A.R. Form PMA.)
- C. TENANT OBLIGATIONS: A tenant is responsible for obtaining their own renter's insurance, and such a recommendation may be made in the lease or rental agreements. (See Residential Lease or Month-to-Month Rental Agreement, C.A.R. Form RLMM.) A property owner may want the tenant to also obtain a liability insurance policy for a minimum amount and to name both the rental property owner, and, if applicable, the real estate licensee as additional insured, or at a minimum, an additional interest holder. The latter allows the owner to inquire on the status of coverage. (See Residential Lease or Month-to-Month Rental Agreement, C.A.R. Form RLMM.)
- 10. FAIR HOUSING CONSIDERATIONS: California fair housing laws prohibit discrimination against individual tenants who belong to at least one of over 20 protected classes or categories. Included among the list is the source of a tenant's income. A rental property owner cannot refuse to rent to a tenant just because the tenant receives governmental agency rental housing assistance or vouchers (e.g. Section 8). Refusal to rent to a prospective tenant who has an assistance animal or who brings in an assistance animal after the rental has been approved is a violation of California's fair housing laws. So-called testers are employed by the California Department of Civil Rights, and plaintiff attorneys to try and find violations of the law. California also prohibits discrimination based on a tenant's immigration status or familial status, which includes the number of people who will be residing in the rental. (See Fair Housing and Discrimination Advisory, C.A.R. Form FHDA.)

- 11. DECLARED EMERGENCIES: California has experienced wildfires, floods, earthquakes and other natural disasters. The California Governor has sweeping power to declare a State of Emergency. Often accompanying a State of Emergency is an Executive Order which prohibits, or limits, rent increases (typically 10% during the state of emergency or any extension period). Local authorities also have the authority to declare a local state of emergency. These Executive Orders may last for a period of 30 days and may be extended for months or even years.
- 12. UTILITIES: Some properties have utilities billed in the name of the property owner and others in the name of the tenant. There may be a single meter or submeters. If a master meter is in the rental property owner's name, and the tenant makes payments that are past due to prevent the loss of utilities, the tenant may reduce rent by the amount paid on the property owner's behalf. Owners should seek legal counsel regarding proportioning utilities on a single meter (other than by unit or by square footage) or prior to changing who is responsible in the lease for paying utilities.
- 13. ELEVATED WOOD BALCONIES AND STAIRS: Commencing January 1, 2026, if any building on a property contains 3 or more units, and has balconies, decks, stairways or other structures that are at least 6 feet above ground level and are supported, in whole or in part, by wood or wood-based products, then the elevated elements must be inspected by an appropriate professional, and every six years thereafter. The report requires that a property owner be informed of necessary repairs. See Wooden Balconies and Stairs Addendum (C.A.R. Form WBSA) for further information.
- 14. LEGAL AND TAX CONSEQUENCES: You are advised to seek the advice of a qualified California landlord-tenant attorney who is familiar with the law where the property is located and a qualified CPA or tax professional before signing an agreement or at the latest during the investigation contingency if you are purchasing a property for rental or before the execution of a lease or rental agreement if already a rental property owner. Broker/Agent cannot give legal or tax advice.
- 15. TERMINATION OF AGENCY: Unless otherwise agreed, the agency relationship with Broker(s)/Agent(s) representing you will be terminated, and the Broker(s)/Agent(s) will not act as property manager(s), as follows: (i) in a purchase transaction, upon close of escrow; or (ii) pursuant to a lease listing agreement, once you enter into a written agreement with a tenant.

 - Real estate brokerage firms
 - Property managers
 - Mobilehome parks
 - Homeowners Associations ("HOAs");
 - Banks and Mortgage lenders
 - Insurance companies
 - Government housing services
 - Appraisers

8. EXAMPLES OF CONDUCT THAT MAY NOT BE MOTIVATED BY DISCRIMINATORY INTENT BUT COULD HAVE A DISCRIMINATORY EFFECT:
 - A. Prior to acceptance of an offer, asking for or offering buyer personal information or letters from the buyer, especially with photos. Those types of documents may inadvertently reveal, or be perceived as revealing, protected status information thereby increasing the risk of (i) actual or unconscious bias, and (ii) potential legal claims against sellers and others by prospective buyers whose offers were rejected.
 - B. Refusing to rent (i) an upper-level unit to an elderly tenant out of concern for the tenant's ability to navigate stairs or (ii) a house with a pool to a person with young children out of concern for the children's safety.
9. EXAMPLES OF UNLAWFUL OR IMPROPER CONDUCT BASED ON A PROTECTED CLASS OR CHARACTERISTIC:
 - A. Refusing to negotiate for a sale, rental or financing or otherwise make a housing opportunity unavailable; failing to present offers due to a person's protected status;
 - B. Refusing or failing to show, rent, sell or finance housing; "channeling" or "steering" a prospective buyer or tenant to or away from a particular area due to that person's protected status or because of the racial, religious or ethnic composition of the neighborhood;
 - C. "Blockbusting" or causing "panic selling" by inducing a listing, sale or rental based on the grounds of loss of value of property, increase in crime, or decline in school quality due to the entry or prospective entry of people in protected categories into the neighborhood;
 - D. Making any statement or advertisement that indicates any preference, limitation, or discrimination;

- E. Inquiring about protected characteristics (such as asking tenant applicants if they are married, or prospective purchasers if they have children or are planning to start a family);
- F. Using criminal history information before otherwise affirming eligibility, and without a legally sufficient justification;
- G. Failing to assess financial standards based on the portion of the income responsible by a tenant who receives government subsidies (such as basing an otherwise neutral rent to income ratio on the whole rent rather than just the part of rent that is the tenant's responsibility);
- H. Denying a home loan or homeowner's insurance;
- I. Offering inferior terms, conditions, privileges, facilities or services;
- J. Using different qualification criteria or procedures for sale or rental of housing such as income standards, application requirements, application fees, credit analyses, sale or rental approval procedures or other requirements;
- K. Harassing a person;
- L. Taking an adverse action based on protected characteristics;
- M. Refusing to permit a reasonable modification to the premises, as requested by a person with a disability (such as refusing to allow a tenant who uses a wheelchair to install, at their expense, a ramp over front or rear steps, or refusing to allow a tenant with a disability from installing, at their own expense, grab bars in a shower or bathtub);
- N. Refusing to make reasonable accommodation in policies, rules, practices, or services for a person with a disability (such as the following, if an actual or prospective tenant with a disability has a service animal or support animal):
 - (i) Failing to allow that person to keep the service animal or emotional support animal in rental property,
 - (ii) Charging that person higher rent or increased security deposit, or
 - (iii) Failing to show rental or sale property to that person who is accompanied by the service animal or support animal, and;
- O. Retaliating for asserting rights under fair housing laws.

10. EXAMPLES OF POSITIVE PRACTICES:

- A. Real estate licensees working with buyers or tenants should apply the same objective property selection criteria, such as location/neighborhood, property features, and price range and other considerations, to all prospects.
- B. Real estate licensees should provide complete and objective information to all clients based on the client's selection criteria.
- C. Real estate licensees should provide the same professional courtesy in responding to inquiries, sharing of information and offers of assistance to all clients and prospects.
- D. Housing providers should not make any statement or advertisement that directly or indirectly implies preference, limitation, or discrimination regarding any protected characteristic (such as "no children" or "English-speakers only").
- E. Housing providers should use a selection process relying on objective information about a prospective buyer's offer or tenant's application and not seek any information that may disclose any protected characteristics (such as using a summary document, e.g. C.A.R. Form SUM-MO, to compare multiple offers on objective terms).

11. - A. Legally compliant senior housing is exempt from FHA, FEHA and Unruh as related to age or familial status only;
- B. An owner of a single-family residence who resides at the property with one lodger may be exempt from FEHA for rental purposes, PROVIDED no real estate licensee is involved in the rental;
- C. An owner of a single-family residence may be exempt from FHA for sale or rental purposes, PROVIDED (i) no real estate licensee is involved in the sale or rental and (ii) no discriminatory advertising is used, and (iii) the owner owns no more than three single-family residences. Other restrictions apply;
- D. An owner of residential property with one to four units who resides at the property, may be exempt from FHA for rental purposes, PROVIDED no real estate licensee is involved in the rental; and
- E. Both FHA and FEHA do not apply to roommate situations. See, Fair Housing Council v Roommate.com LLC, 666 F.3d 1216 (2019).
- F. Since both the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and the Civil Rights Act of 1866 prohibit discrimination based on race; the FHA and FEHA exemptions do not extend to discrimination based on race.

CALIFORNIA CONSUMER PRIVACY ACT ADVISORY, DISCLOSURE AND NOTICE (C.A.R. Form CCPA, Revised 12/22)

The California Consumer Privacy Act (commencing with Civil Code § 1798.100) ("CCPA"), as amended by California voters in 2020, grants to California residents certain rights in their private, personal information ("PI") that is collected by companies with whom they do business. Under the CCPA, PI is defined broadly to encompass non-public records information that could reasonably be linked directly or indirectly to you. PI could potentially include photographs of, or sales information about, your property.

During the process of buying and selling real estate your PI will be collected and likely shared with others, including real estate licensees, a Multiple Listing Service, real estate internet websites, service providers, lenders, and title and escrow companies, to name several possibilities. Businesses that are covered by the CCPA are required to grant you various rights in your PI, including the right to know what PI is collected, the right to know what PI is sold or shared and to whom, the right to request that the business correct or delete your PI, the right to "opt out" or stop the transfer of your PI to others, and the right to limit the use of certain PI which is considered "sensitive." You may get one or more notices regarding your CCPA rights from businesses you interact with in a real estate transaction. However, not all businesses that receive or share your PI are obligated to comply with the CCPA. Moreover, businesses that are otherwise covered under the CCPA may have a legal obligation to maintain PI, notwithstanding your instruction to the contrary. For instance, regardless of whether they are covered by CCPA, under California law, brokers and Multiple Listing Services are required to maintain their records for 3 years. If you wish to exercise your rights under CCPA, where applicable, you should contact the respective business directly.

You can obtain more information about the CCPA and your rights under the law from the State of California Department of Justice (oag.ca.gov/privacy/ccpa). Additionally, the California Privacy Protection Agency is authorized to promulgate regulations which may further clarify requirements of the CCPA (cppa.ca.gov/regulations/).

DISCLOSURE REGARDING REAL ESTATE AGENCY RELATIONSHIP

(As required by the Civil Code)
(C.A.R. Form AD, Revised 12/24)

(If checked) This form is being provided in connection with a transaction with a leasehold interest exceeding one year as per Civil Code §§ 2079.13(j), (k), and (l).

When you enter into a discussion with a real estate agent regarding a real estate transaction, you should from the outset understand what type of agency relationship or representation you wish to have with the agent in the transaction.

SELLER'S AGENT

A Seller's agent under a listing agreement with the Seller acts as the agent for the Seller only. A Seller's agent or a subagent of that agent has the following affirmative obligations:

To the Seller: A Fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in dealings with the Seller.

To the Buyer and the Seller:

- (a) Diligent exercise of reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties.
- (b) A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith.
- (c) A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the property that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the parties. An agent is not obligated to reveal to either party any confidential information obtained from the other party that does not involve the affirmative duties set forth above.

BUYER'S AGENT

A Buyer's agent can, with a Buyer's consent, agree to act as agent for the Buyer only. This includes a Buyer's agent under a buyer-broker representation agreement with the Buyer. In these situations, the agent is not the Seller's agent, even if by agreement the agent may receive compensation for services rendered, either in full or in part from the Seller. An agent acting only for a Buyer has the following affirmative obligations:

To the Buyer: A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in dealings with the Buyer.

To the Buyer and the Seller:

- (a) Diligent exercise of reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties.
- (b) A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith.
- (c) A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the property that are not known to, or within the diligent attention and observation of, the parties. An agent is not obligated to reveal to either party any confidential information obtained from the other party that does not involve the affirmative duties set forth above.

AGENT REPRESENTING BOTH SELLER AND BUYER

A real estate agent, either acting directly or through one or more salespersons and broker associates, can legally be the agent of both the Seller and the Buyer in a transaction, but only with the knowledge and consent of both the Seller and the Buyer.

In a dual agency situation, the agent has the following affirmative obligations to both the Seller and the Buyer:

- (a) A fiduciary duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty and loyalty in the dealings with either the Seller or the Buyer.
- (b) Other duties to the Seller and the Buyer as stated above in their respective sections.

In representing both Seller and Buyer, a dual agent may not, without the express permission of the respective party, disclose to the other party confidential information, including, but not limited to, facts relating to either the Buyer's or Seller's financial position, motivations, bargaining position, or other personal information that may impact price, including the Seller's willingness to accept a price less than the listing price or the Buyer's willingness to pay a price greater than the price offered.

SELLER AND BUYER RESPONSIBILITIES

Either the purchase agreement or a separate document will contain a confirmation of which agent is representing you and whether that agent is representing you exclusively in the transaction or acting as a dual agent. Please pay attention to that confirmation to make sure it accurately reflects your understanding of your agent's role.

The above duties of the agent in a real estate transaction do not relieve a Seller or Buyer from the responsibility to protect their own interests. You should carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express your understanding of the transaction. A real estate agent is a person qualified to advise about real estate. If legal or tax advice is desired, consult a competent professional.

If you are a Buyer, you have the duty to exercise reasonable care to protect yourself, including as to those facts about the property which are known to you or within your diligent attention and observation.

Both Sellers and Buyers should strongly consider obtaining tax advice from a competent professional because the federal and state tax consequences of a transaction can be complex and subject to change.

Throughout your real property transaction you may receive more than one disclosure form, depending upon the number of agents assisting in the transaction. The law requires each agent with whom you have more than a casual relationship to present you with this disclosure form. You should read its contents each time it is presented to you, considering the relationship between you and the real estate agent in your specific transaction. This disclosure form includes the provisions of §§ 2079.13 to 2079.24, inclusive, of the Civil Code set forth on page 2. Read it carefully.

Note: Real estate broker commissions are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

2079.13. As used in this section and §§ 2079.7 and 2079.14 to 2079.24, inclusive, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Agent" means a person acting under provisions of Title 9 (commencing with § 2295) in a real property transaction, and includes a person who is licensed as a real estate broker under Chapter 3 (commencing with § 10130) of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, and under whose license a listing is executed or an offer to purchase is obtained. The agent in the real property transaction bears responsibility for that agent's salespersons or broker associates who perform as agents of the agent. When a salesperson or broker associate owes a duty to any principal, or to any buyer or seller who is not a principal, in a real property transaction, that duty is equivalent to the duty owed to that party by the broker for whom the salesperson or broker associate functions. (b) "Buyer" means a transferee in a real property transaction, and includes a person who executes an offer to purchase real property from a seller through an agent, or who seeks the services of an agent in more than a casual, transitory, or preliminary manner, with the object of entering into a real property transaction. "Buyer" includes a vendee or lessee of real property. (c) "Commercial real property" means all real property in the state, except (1) single-family residential real property, (2) dwelling units made subject to Chapter 2 (commencing with § 1940) of Title 5, (3) a mobilehome, as defined in § 798.3, (4) vacant land, or (5) a recreational vehicle, as defined in § 799.29. (d) "Dual agent" means an agent acting, either directly or through a salesperson or broker associate, as agent for both the seller and the buyer in a real property transaction. (e) "Listing agreement" means a written contract between a seller of real property and an agent, by which the agent has been authorized to sell the real property or to find or obtain a buyer, including rendering other services for which a real estate license is required to the seller pursuant to the terms of the agreement. (f) "Seller's agent" means a person who has obtained a listing of real property to act as an agent for compensation. (g) "Listing price" is the amount expressed in dollars specified in the listing for which the seller is willing to sell the real property through the seller's agent. (h) "Offering price" is the amount expressed in dollars specified in an offer to purchase for which the buyer is willing to buy the real property. (i) "Offer to purchase" means a written contract executed by a buyer acting through a buyer's agent that becomes the contract for the sale of the real property upon acceptance by the seller. (j) "Real property" means any estate specified by subdivision (1) or (2) of § 761 in property, and includes (1) single-family residential property, (2) multiunit residential property with more than four dwelling units, (3) commercial real property, (4) vacant land, (5) a ground lease coupled with improvements, or (6) a manufactured home as defined in § 18007 of the Health and Safety Code, or a mobilehome as defined in § 18008 of the Health and Safety Code, when offered for sale or sold through an agent pursuant to the authority contained in § 10131.6 of the Business and Professions Code. (k) "Real property transaction" means a transaction for the sale of real property in which an agent is retained by a buyer, seller, or both a buyer and seller to act in that transaction, and includes a listing or an offer to purchase. (l) "Single-family residential property" or "single-family residential real property" means any of the following: (1) Real property improved with one to four dwelling units, including a leasehold exceeding one year's duration. (2) A unit in a residential stock cooperative, condominium, or planned unit development. (3) A mobilehome or manufactured home when offered for sale or sold through a real estate broker pursuant to § 10131.6 of the Business and Professions Code. (m) "Sell," "sale," or "sold" refers to a transaction for the transfer of real property from the seller to the buyer and includes exchanges of real property between the seller and buyer, transactions for the creation of a real property sales contract within the meaning of § 2985, and transactions for the creation of a leasehold exceeding one year's duration. (n) "Seller" means the transferor in a real property transaction and includes an owner who lists real property with an agent, whether or not a transfer results, or who receives an offer to purchase real property of which he or she is the owner from an agent on behalf of another. "Seller" includes both a vendor and a lessor of real property. (o) "Buyer's agent" means an agent who represents a buyer in a real property transaction. (p) "Buyer-broker representation agreement" means a written contract between a buyer of real property and a buyer's agent by which the buyer's agent has been authorized by the buyer to provide services set forth in subdivision (a) of § 10131 of the Business and Professions Code for or on behalf of the buyer for which a real estate license is required pursuant to the terms of the contract.

2079.14. (a) A copy of the disclosure form specified in § 2079.16 shall be provided in a real property transaction as follows: (1) The seller's agent, if any, shall provide the disclosure form to the seller before entering into a listing agreement. (2) The buyer's agent shall provide the disclosure to the buyer as soon as practicable before the execution of a buyer-broker representation agreement and execution of the buyer's offer to purchase. If the offer to purchase is not prepared by the buyer's agent, the buyer's agent shall present the disclosure form to the buyer not later than the next business day after receiving the offer to purchase from the buyer. (b) The agent providing the disclosure form specified in § 2079.16 shall obtain a signed acknowledgment of receipt from the buyer or seller except as provided in § 2079.15.

2079.15. In any circumstance in which the seller or buyer refuses to sign an acknowledgment of receipt pursuant to § 2079.14, the agent shall set forth, sign, and date a written declaration of the facts of the refusal.

2079.17(a) As soon as practicable, the buyer's agent shall disclose to the buyer and seller whether the agent is acting in the real property transaction as the buyer's agent, or as a dual agent representing both the buyer and the seller. This relationship shall be confirmed in the contract to purchase and sell real property or in a separate writing executed or acknowledged by the seller, the buyer, and the buyer's agent prior to or coincident with execution of that contract by the buyer and the seller, respectively. (b) As soon as practicable, the seller's agent shall disclose to the seller whether the seller's agent is acting in the real property transaction as the seller's agent, or as a dual agent representing both the buyer and seller. This relationship shall be confirmed in the contract to purchase and sell real property or in a separate writing executed or acknowledged by the seller and the seller's agent prior to or coincident with the execution of that contract by the seller. (c) The confirmation required by subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be in the following form:

(d) The disclosures and confirmation required by this section shall be in addition to the disclosure required by § 2079.14. An agent's duty to provide disclosure and confirmation of representation in this section may be performed by a real estate salesperson or broker associate affiliated with that broker.

2079.18 (Repealed pursuant to AB-1289)

2079.19 The payment of compensation or the obligation to pay compensation to an agent by the seller or buyer is not necessarily determinative of a particular agency relationship between an agent and the seller or buyer. A listing agent and a selling agent may agree to share any compensation or commission paid, or any right to any compensation or commission for which an obligation arises as the result of a real estate transaction, and the terms of any such agreement shall not necessarily be determinative of a particular relationship.

2079.22 Nothing in this article precludes a seller's agent from also being a buyer's agent. If a seller or buyer in a transaction chooses to not be represented by an agent, that does not, of itself, make that agent a dual agent.

2079.23 (a) A contract between the principal and agent may be modified or altered to change the agency relationship at any time before the performance of the act which is the object of the agency with the written consent of the parties to the agency relationship. (b) A lender or an auction company retained by a lender to control aspects of a transaction of real property subject to this part, including validating the sales price, shall not require, as a condition of receiving the lender's approval of the transaction, the homeowner or listing agent to defend or indemnify the lender or auction company from any liability alleged to result from the actions of the lender or auction company. Any clause, provision, covenant, or agreement purporting to impose an obligation to defend or indemnify a lender or an auction company in violation of this subdivision is against public policy, void, and unenforceable.

CALIFORNIA CONSUMER PRIVACY ACT ADVISORY, DISCLOSURE AND NOTICE (C.A.R. Form CCPA, Revised 12/22)

The California Consumer Privacy Act (commencing with Civil Code § 1798.100) (“CCPA”), as amended by California voters in 2020, grants to California residents certain rights in their private, personal information (“PI”) that is collected by companies with whom they do business. Under the CCPA, PI is defined broadly to encompass non-public records information that could reasonably be linked directly or indirectly to you. PI could potentially include photographs of, or sales information about, your property.

During the process of buying and selling real estate your PI will be collected and likely shared with others, including real estate licensees, a Multiple Listing Service, real estate internet websites, service providers, lenders, and title and escrow companies, to name several possibilities. Businesses that are covered by the CCPA are required to grant you various rights in your PI, including the right to know what PI is collected, the right to know what PI is sold or shared and to whom, the right to request that the business correct or delete your PI, the right to “opt out” or stop the transfer of your PI to others, and the right to limit the use of certain PI which is considered “sensitive.” You may get one or more notices regarding your CCPA rights from businesses you interact with in a real estate transaction. However, not all businesses that receive or share your PI are obligated to comply with the CCPA. Moreover, businesses that are otherwise covered under the CCPA may have a legal obligation to maintain PI, notwithstanding your instruction to the contrary. For instance, regardless of whether they are covered by CCPA, under California law, brokers and Multiple Listing Services are required to maintain their records for 3 years. If you wish to exercise your rights under CCPA, where applicable, you should contact the respective business directly.

You can obtain more information about the CCPA and your rights under the law from the State of California Department of Justice (oag.ca.gov/privacy/ccpa). Additionally, the California Privacy Protection Agency is authorized to promulgate regulations which may further clarify requirements of the CCPA (cppa.ca.gov/regulations/).
