

520 SOUTH LOS ROBLES AVENUE, BUNGALOW 4, PASADENA, CA

This Spanish one bedroom residence is the second of 5 individual bungalows to be renovated, and is now an extraordinary opportunity to call home. In addition to its numerous interior and exterior appointments (see list below), it is prominently situated in the prestigious community of Madison Heights, city of Pasadena.

If you are planning to move into one of the city's finest residential districts, or are looking to downsize from a grand old home, then this is that very rare and exclusive moment to do so.

Here is why: This is a turnkey detached Spanish cottage that was originally built in 1922. Since then, it has undergone extensive reconstruction and modernization with the highest architectural standards and features in mind.

Now, it is available to provide that truly fabulous California living experience of a detached home, without the costs and obligations of owning, as well as the freedom to work and travel without a care.

Your attention is invited to the outstanding list of features that this one of a kind bungalow has to offer.

In addition, as an optional amenity to qualifying applicants, fully finished flex office/gym/garage space, may be available starting at $695.00 per month.
