IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND OFFER GUIDELINES

- Please use the standard RPA. This is NOT a probate sale.
- Sale is subject to court approval and potential overbid.
- The seller is Richardson Griswold Esq., Receiver, and not the owner of record. The seller is court-appointed and holds a valid CA real estate license.
- The buyer will receive fee simple title to the property free of any liens or encumbrances. Escrow shall be provided by Seright Escrow.
- Title shall be provided by California Title. Buyer and Seller shall each pay their own fees. Seller shall pay for owner's policy only.
- Seller shall not provide/pay for an environmental report, termite report, termite clearance, or home warranty.
- Bed, bath, and square footage information is derived from the assessor's record and may differ from the actual property. Buyer to verify.
- Seller shall seek court approval upon receipt of the buyer's full contingency removal.
- Close of escrow shall occur as soon as reasonably possible following court approval.
- The seller and listing agent have limited knowledge of the property's current condition and may be exempt from certain disclosures.
- The home is in distressed condition and may not qualify for traditional financing.

- Buyer may not assign or wholesale this agreement. The party signing as Buyer must be the same party taking title at closing. Any attempt to transfer or substitute another buyer without Seller's written consent will be considered a default, and the Seller may cancel the agreement.
- Buyer shall not market, advertise, or offer the property for sale, assignment, or transfer prior to closing.
- In the event Buyer elects to utilize a hard money loan for all or part of the purchase funds, Buyer acknowledges and agrees that no loan or appraisal contingency shall apply, and Buyer's use of such financing shall not cause any delay to the closing date or impose any additional requirements or obligations upon Seller. Buyer may exercise their option to use a hard money loan only upon receiving Seller's prior written approval for the change in financing, and with full acknowledgment that closing shall occur on or before the agreed-upon closing date, regardless of any lender or funding delays.
