Designed for a multigenerational lifestyle or an income-producing opportunity, this home features a private studio apartment with a full bathroom, kitchen, and private entry, in addition to the four bedrooms and two bathrooms in the main quarters.

Open the door to hardwood floors, plantation shutters, and recessed lighting throughout the formal living and dining rooms, each with front-facing windows, a light-filled kitchen, and an adjacent family room.

The kitchen features granite counters and backsplashes, a peninsula island, a backyard-view window over a stainless-steel sink, and KitchenAid appliances, including a range, refrigerator, and dishwasher. Step down into the family room, which features a gas fireplace with a carved mantel and brick surround, plus custom built-in cabinetry on either side.
