Need help with a down payment?

AccessDPA has you covered.

Access Down Payment Assistance (AccessDPA)* helps put homeownership within reach with no income limits or first-time buyer requirements.

Here's what AccessDPA could do for you:

- Helps cover your down payment with assistance up to 5%
- Lets you apply even if you're not a first-time buyer
- Removes income and purchase price restrictions
- Expands your options if you meet FHA eligibility
- Opens the door to homeownership in 49 states (excludes New York)

Qualified borrowers may receive up to 5% down payment assistance. Minimum credit score and debt-to-income (DTI) requirements apply. Not available in New York. Talk to your loan officer for more information about how your maximum loan amount is determined. Applicants are subject to credit and underwriting approval. Additional restrictions apply.
