MURRIETA OVERVIEW

Murrieta is a city in southwestern Riverside County, California, United States. The population of Murrieta was 103,466 at the 2010 census. Murrieta experienced a 133.7% population increase between 2000 and 2010, according to the most recent census, making Murrieta one of the fastest-growing cities in the state. This population boom in 2010 surpassed the population of the historically larger and more commercial city of Temecula to the south for the first time since the incorporation of either city.

Temecula and Murrieta together form the southwestern anchor of the Inland Empire region. Largely residential in character, Murrieta is typically characterized as a commuter town, with many of its residents commuting to jobs in San Diego County, Orange County, Los Angeles County, Temecula, and Camp Pendleton.

The city of Murrieta is situated just 100 miles outside of Los Angeles and is well loved by residents for its gorgeous surrounding vineyards and idyllic scenery. Not just known for its grapes, the area around the city is said to be some of the most picturesque in the region, and for anyone who likes to get outdoors then this is not to be missed.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY OVERVIEW

Riverside County is one of the fastest growing counties in the United States, leading the rapidly changing Inland Empire market, with rivers, mountain peaks, deserts and fertile valleys, Riverside County offers diversity that few locations can match. More than two million people live in Riverside County, making it the fourth most populous county in California, taking advantage of affordable housing, nearby beaches, mountains, hiking and bike trails, the Wine Country near Temecula and resorts that offer oases in the desert. Riverside County covers 7,208 square miles in Southern California. Together, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties have been dubbed the Inland Empire.

California’s fourth largest county by population is expanding its economy, working to diversify beyond the housing industry that has driven the region’s economy for years.

Centrally located in the heart of Southern California; Riverside County borders San Bernardino, Orange and San Diego Counties. Interstate 10 runs through the entire County from east to west, and Interstates 15 and 215 connect Riverside County with San Diego County and San Bernardino County. Highway 60 and 91 link Riverside County to Los Angeles and Orange Counties. Attractive to many businesses, rail service connects Riverside County businesses with important markets, ports of entry, and key airports to expedite major national and international commerce transactions. Metrolink provides a large number of commuters from Riverside to Los Angeles, Orange and San Bernardino Counties In addition, Riverside County is presently served by 3 airports including the rapidly expanding Ontario international Airport: Palm Springs International Airport and San Bernardino International Airport.
