

5723 Stewart Avenue

Home Features

- Hurricane-rated high-impact windows throughout the home, with the exception of the stained-glass windows, which are protected by shutters
- Wood-paneled elevator providing convenient access between levels
- Spray foam insulation throughout the entire house for enhanced energy efficiency
- Secondary bathroom featuring a relaxing jetted soaking tub
- Spacious primary bath with an oversized steam shower
- Large office or guest quarters located on the lower level
- Custom chicken coop with interior egg-collection access
- Dedicated workshop space for hobbies, projects, or storage
- Tranquil waterfall feature enhancing the front yard landscape
- Unique stained-glass window salvaged from the historic Ursuline Convent, showcased in the primary bedroom
- Beautiful leaded-glass window in the second bathroom
- Durable and elegant Silestone countertops
- Genuine wood flooring throughout
- Custom inlaid tile detail in the kitchen
- Refrigerator, washer, and dryer included with the home
- Screened porch off the secondary bedroom with private stair access to the ground level