

WHAT WE LOVE

915 Oxford Street, Houston, TX 77008

Thank you for touring our home. Here is some information that we felt might help you in your decision-making process.

WHY DID YOU DECIDE TO BUY THIS HOME FOR YOURSELF?

We loved the combination of a true Houston Heights setting and a home with enough space to grow. The location puts you close to neighborhood trails, parks, restaurants and shops while still offering a spacious two-story home. We purchased the house while Camille was pregnant with twins seeking a close in spot with exceptional HISD primary school in Harvard Elementary.

WHAT DO YOU THINK ARE THE BEST FEATURES OF YOUR HOME?

The home has a flexible layout with high ceilings, wood floors, an island kitchen with granite counters, a gas fireplace, study/library, media and game-room spaces. I work from home, so the full garage apartment with full bath and kitchen was ideal for a home office and mother-in-law guest room.

TELL ME ABOUT YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD.

Houston Heights has the feel of an established neighborhood inside the city: historic homes, tree-lined streets, porches, parks and a strong local restaurant and shopping scene. Heights Boulevard, the M-K-T/Heights trail network and the 19th Street corridor make it easy to get outside or stay close to home, while Downtown is only a few miles away.

WHAT ARE YOUR FAVORITE PLACES FOR RECREATION, SHOPPING, AND EATING NEARBY?

For recreation, we love White Oak Street, Donovan Park and the Heights/M-K-T Hike & Bike Trail. For shopping and an easy afternoon out, Heights Mercantile and the historic 19th Street corridor are favorites.

ARE THERE ANY ITEMS YOU WANT SPECIFICALLY EXCLUDED?

915 Oxford's is far enough off the main streets to never have an issue with congestion or parking issues. This house is perfect for a young family working downtown.
