BYLAWS
OF
THE HILLSIDE ON MAPLE, INC.

ARTICLE I
NAME AND PURPOSE

Pursuant to the Condominium Declaration of The Hillside on Maple, Inc., recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Waukesha County, Wisconsin, (hereinafter called the "Declaration") by 510 MAPLE, LLC (together with their successors and assigns hereinafter "Declarant"), the following are adopted as the Bylaws of The Hillside on Maple, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the "Association"), which is an unincorporated association formed and organized to serve as an Association of the owners of Units (hereinafter referred to as "Unit Owners") who own real estate and improvements (hereinafter the "Property") under the condominium form of use and ownership, as provided in the Condominium Ownership Act under the laws of the State of Wisconsin and subject to the terms and conditions of the Declaration, which is incorporated by reference. This condominium shall be considered a small condominium under Wis. Stats. §703.365.

These Bylaws shall be deemed covenants running with the land and shall be binding on the Unit Owners, their heirs, administrators, personal representatives, successors, and assigns.

ARTICLE II
MEMBERS, VOTING, AND MEETINGS

1. Members. The unincorporated association shall have one class of members, and the rights and qualifications of the members are as follows:

A. Members Defined. Every Unit Owner upon acquiring ownership shall automatically become a member of the Association and remain a member thereof until such time as his or her ownership of such Unit ceases for any reason, at which time his or her membership in the Association shall automatically cease.

B. One Membership Per Unit. One membership and one vote shall exist for each Unit. If title to a Unit is held by more than one person, the membership related to that Unit shall be shared by such owners in the same proportionate interests and by the same type of tenancy in which the title to the Unit is held. Voting rights may not be split, and shared membership interest must be voted pursuant to the nomination contained in the Membership List.

C. Membership List. The Association shall maintain a current Membership List showing the membership pertaining to each Unit and the person designated to cast the one vote pertaining to such Unit and the person designated to act on the Board of Directors of the Association. Only the person so designated shall be entitled to cast a vote in person or by proxy and only one person may be designated to act on the Board of Directors. A designation may be changed by notice in writing to the Secretary of the Association signed by a majority of the persons having an ownership interest in the Unit.

D. Transfer of Membership. Each membership shall be appurtenant to the Unit upon which it is based and shall be transferred automatically upon conveyance of that Unit. Membership in the Association may not be transferred, except in connection with the transfer of a Unit. Upon transfer of a Unit, the Association shall, as soon as possible thereafter, be given written notice of such transfer, including the name of the new owner, identification of Unit, date of transfer, name of the person designated to vote, and any other information about the transfer which the Association may deem pertinent and the Association shall make appropriate changes to the Membership List effective as of the date of transfer.

2. Quorum and Proxies for Members' Meetings. A quorum for members' meeting shall consist of 75% of the members entitled to vote. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy in accordance with designations in the Membership List. The act of 75% of the members entitled to vote, whether or not such members are present in person or by proxy at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the members. Proxies shall be valid only for the particular meeting(s) or time period designated therein, unless sooner revoked, and must be filed with the Secretary before the appointed time of the meeting. If any meeting of members cannot be organized because a quorum is not present, a majority of the members who are present, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present, without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed.

3. Time, Place, Notice and Calling of Members' Meetings. Written notice of all meetings stating the time and place and the purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given by the President or Secretary, unless waived in writing, to each member at his or her address as it appears on the books of the Association and shall be mailed or personally delivered not less than ten (10) days nor more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the meeting. Notice of meetings shall be given in a manner best calculated to assure that actual notice is received by each member. Notice of meetings may be waived before or after meetings. Meetings shall be held at such time and place as may be designated by the Board of Directors, but not less than quarterly. The annual meeting shall be held on the third Monday in January of each year for the purpose of electing directors and of transacting any other business authorized to be transacted by the members. Special meetings of the members shall be held whenever called by the President or any two members of the Board of Directors and must be called by such officers upon receipt of a written request signed by members with one-third (1/3) or more of all votes entitled to be cast.

ARTICLE III
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. Number and Qualifications of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of one representative person of each Unit, as determined by the notice filed with the secretary as described in Article II Paragraph C above.

2. Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors. The affairs of the Association shall be governed by the Board of Directors. All powers and duties as shall be necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Association shall be exercised by the Board of Directors. Such powers and duties shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration, and these Bylaws.

3. Regular Meetings and Notice. A regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of the members. Notice of the regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall not be required. Other regular meetings shall be held at a time and place determined by the Board of Directors at their annual meeting, but not less than quarterly.

4. Special Meetings and Notice. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or by two (2) directors on three (3) days prior written notice to each director, given personally or by mail, which notice shall state the time, place, and purpose of the meeting.

5. Waiver of Notice. Before, at or after any meeting of the Board of Directors, any director may in writing, waive notice of such meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a director at any meeting of the Board shall be a waiver of notice by him or her of the time and place thereof. If all of the directors are present at any meeting of the Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

6. Quorum of Directors - Adjournments. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, 75% the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of 75% of all directors, whether or not present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If, at any meeting of the Board of Directors, there shall be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted.

7. Fidelity Bonds. The Board of Directors may require that some or all officers or employees of the Association handling or responsible for Association's funds shall furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premiums on any such bonds shall be paid for by the Association.

8. Compensation. No director of the unincorporated association shall receive any fee or other compensation for such services rendered to the Association, except by specific resolution of the membership.

9. Informal Action. Any action which is required to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or which may be taken at such meeting, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the directors entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as unanimous vote.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

1. Designation, Election, and Removal. The principal officers of the Association shall be a President, Secretary, and Treasurer, to be elected annually by the Board of Directors. Upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and his or her or her successor shall be elected at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors, or at any special meeting called for that purpose. Any two or more offices, except a combination of the offices of President and Secretary, may be held by the same person.

2. President. The President shall be selected from among the members of the Board of Directors and shall be the chief executive officer of the Association. He or she shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors. he or she shall have all the general powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of President, including, but not limited to, the power to sign, together with any other officer designated by the Board, any contracts, checks, drafts, or other instruments on behalf of the Association in accordance with the provisions herein.

3. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Association and shall have charge of the Association's books and records, and shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary.

4. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the Association's funds and shall be responsible for keeping full and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements and financial records and books of account on behalf of the Association. he or she shall be responsible for the deposit of all monies and all valuable effects in the name, and to the credit, of the Association in such depositories as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall also be responsible for the billing and collection of all common charges and assessments made by the Association.

5. Liability of Directors and Officers. No person shall be liable to the Association for any loss or damage suffered by it on account of any action taken or omitted to be taken by him or her as a director or officer of the Association, if such person (a) exercised and used the same degree of care and skill as a prudent man would have exercised or used under the circumstances in the conduct of his or her own affairs, or (b) took or omitted take such action in reliance upon advice of counsel for the Association or upon statements made or information furnished by officers or employees of the Association which he or she has reasonable grounds to believe to be true. The foregoing shall not be exclusive of other rights and defenses to which he or she may be entitled as a matter of law.

6. Compensation. No officer of the unincorporated association shall receive any fee or other compensation for services rendered to the Association except by specific resolution of the membership.

ARTICLE V
OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY

1. The Association. The Association, acting through the Board of Directors, shall be responsible for administration and operation of the condominium property, in accordance with the Declaration, and these Bylaws. The Association may contract for management services and a managing agent with respect to the administration and operation of the condominium.

2. Rules and Regulations. The Association, through the Board of Directors, shall from time to time adopt rules and regulations governing the operation, maintenance, and use of the Units, Common Elements, and Limited Common Elements by the Unit Owners and occupants. Such rules and regulations of the Association shall not be inconsistent with the terms of the Declaration or the contracts, documents, and easements referred to in the Declaration, and shall be designed to prevent unreasonable interference with the use of the respective Units, Common Elements, and Limited Common Elements by persons entitled thereto.

3. Common Expenses. The Board of Directors shall determine the common expenses of the Association, and shall prepare an annual operating budget for the Association to determine the amount of the assessments payable by each Unit to meet the estimated expenses of the Association for the ensuing year. The amounts required by such budget shall be allocated among, and assessed against the Units as set forth in the Declaration. The assessment shall be prorated and paid monthly to the Association on or before the first day of each month. If any payment is not made within ten (10) days of the due date, the charges shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum until paid in full.

4. Operating Budget. The annual operating budget shall provide for two funds, one of which shall be designated the "Operating Fund" and the other the "Reserve Fund." The Operating Fund shall be used for all expenses of the Association which occur with greater than annual frequency, such as amounts required for the cost of maintenance of the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements, lawn care and snow removal, insurance, common services, administration, materials, and supplies. The Reserve Fund shall be used for contingencies and periodic expenses such as painting or renovation. In the event the Association incurs extraordinary expenditures not originally included in the annual budget, then such sums as may be required in addition to the operating fund shall be first charged against the Reserve Fund. In the event that both funds prove inadequate to meet the necessary expenses of the Association, the directors may levy a further assessment against the Units which are subject to assessment equally.

The Reserve Fund may include such amounts as the Board of Directors may deem necessary to provide for the purchase or lease of any Unit whose owner wishes to sell or lease to the Association. The Reserve Fund may also be used to discharge mechanics' liens or other encumbrances levied against the entire property, or against each Unit, if resulting from action by the Association. The Unit Owner or Unit Owners responsible for any lien that is paid by the Association, but not the obligation of the Association, shall be specially assessed for the full amount thereof.

The directors may also use the Reserve Fund for the maintenance and repair of any Unit if such maintenance and repair is necessary to protect the Common Elements. The full amount of the cost of any such maintenance or repair shall be specially assessed to the Unit Owner responsible thereof.

The annual budget shall be prepared and determined by December 15th of each calendar year. The Board of Directors shall advise all members of the Association in writing of the amount of the assessments payable on behalf of each Unit by the date of the annual members' meeting and shall furnish copies of the budget on which such assessments are based to each member.

If within fifteen (15) days after the annual membership meeting a petition is presented to the Board of Directors protesting such charges or the budget upon which they are based, and the petition is signed by members representing more than 75% of the membership entitled to vote with respect to such charges, then the directors shall notify all members of a meeting called for the sole purpose of reviewing such charges or budget. At such meeting, the vote of more than 75% of the membership entitled to vote may revise the budget and charges, and such revised budget and corresponding charges shall replace for all purposes the ones previously established; provided, however, that the annual budget and charges may not be revised downward to a point lower than the average total budget for the preceding two years and provided further, that if a budget and charges have not been established and made for any two preceding years, then the budget and charges may not be revised downward until two years of experience exist.

5. Default. If a member of the Association is in default in payment of any assessments for a period of more than thirty (30) days, the Board of Directors, in the name of the Association, may bring suit for and on behalf of the Association, as representative of all members, to enforce collection of such delinquencies or to foreclose the lien therefore, as provided by law, and there shall be added to the amount due the costs of suit and the legal interest, together with reasonable attorney's fees.

6. Manner of Borrowing Money. Upon the affirmative vote of Unit Owners having 75% or more of the votes at a meeting called for such purpose, the Association may borrow money for Association needs and assess Unit Owners a charge sufficient to cover monthly principal and interest amortization. The President and Secretary, on behalf of the Association, shall be authorized to execute the necessary loan documents.

7. Manner of Acquiring and Conveying Property. Upon the written consent of seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the Unit Owners, the Association may acquire land in its own name. The President and Secretary, on behalf of the Association, shall be authorized to execute necessary documents to effectuate the acquisition.

Upon written consent of seventy-five percent (75%) of Unit Owners and mortgagees, portions of the Property as described in the Declaration may be sold. However, the Declaration shall be amended to reflect such sale. Proceeds of any sale shall be divided among the Unit Owners according to their percentage of ownership in Common Elements.

ARTICLE VI
DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNIT OWNERS

1. Rules and Regulations. The Units, Common Elements, and Limited Common Elements shall be occupied and used in accordance with the Declaration, these Bylaws, and the rules and regulations of the Association, including the following:

A. Use. No Unit to be occupied or used for any purposes other than a single family private residence.

B. Obstructions. There shall be no obstruction of the Common Elements and nothing shall be stored therein without the prior consent of the Association.

C. Increase of Insurance Rates. Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit, Common Element, or Limited Common Element which will increase the rate of insurance on the Condominium without the prior consent of the Association. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in his or her Unit or Limited Common Element which will result in the cancellation of insurance on any Unit or any part of the Condominium, or which would be in violation of any law or ordinance. No waste will be committed in the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements.

D. Signs. No sign of any kind shall be displayed to the public view on or from any Unit, the Common Elements, or the Limited Common Elements without prior consent of the Association.

E. Animals. No reptiles or uncaged birds shall be permitted within the Condominium. Unit Owners may keep no more than one (1) pet per Unit, provided the pet is under twenty-six inches (26") in height when measured from the base of its fore-paw to the top of the corresponding shoulder, or no more than two (2) pets per Unit, provided the pets are under twelve (12") inches in height when measured from the base of their fore-paw to the top of the corresponding shoulder; provided, however, that:

(i) The pet is not permitted on any of the Common Elements while unattended or unleashed;

(ii) The individual attending the pet immediately disposes of any and all of the pet's solid waste in the manner prescribed by the Association;

(iii) The owner of the pet complies with such rules of pet ownership as may be promulgated by the Association;

(iv) The pet must immediately and permanently be removed from the Condominium if, in the sole judgment of the Board of Directors, any pet is or becomes offensive, a nuisance, or harmful in any way to the Condominium or those owning or occupying therein or otherwise violates the terms of this Paragraph E or rules promulgated under this subparagraph (iv); and

(v) Any and all costs of repairing damage caused by a pet shall be borne by its owner. Any Unit Owner failing to comply with this Section shall, absent unusual circumstances under which the Board of Directors determines that some lesser or other remedial action is appropriate, be assessed a monthly pet fee in an amount of Five hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month or part thereof until the owner has complied. Such pet fee may be collected in the same manner as assessments under Section 3 of Article 5.

F. No Rentals / No Leasing (Purchase-Only Community). Leasing or renting of Units is prohibited. This includes, without limitation: long-term leases, short-term rentals (Airbnb/VRBO or similar), subleasing, and "room rental" arrangements for compensation. Owners may allow temporary guests to stay without compensation, provided guest use does not create nuisance, parking conflicts, or violate Association rules.

G. Architectural and Exterior Standards. To maintain a cohesive, high-quality community appearance:

- No exterior alterations visible from outside the Unit (including doors, windows, exterior lighting, railings, rooflines, exterior colors/materials, mounted equipment, or facade elements) may be made without written approval, if an architectural review process is established by the Association/Declarant.

- No exterior storage of materials, equipment, or personal property is permitted unless fully enclosed and not visible.

H. Landscaping, Trees, and Outdoor Areas. Owners shall not remove or materially alter landscaping, trees, or grading in Common Elements or within any easements. In addition, no tree that is capable of attaining a mature height greater than twenty-five (25) feet shall be planted on the property.

Any LCE landscaping improvements must not alter drainage patterns and may require approval where applicable.

No planting, edging, fencing, or structures are permitted within stormwater easements or protected areas.

I. Parking, Garages, and Vehicles.

(i) General Parking Framework. Parking is permitted only in the following locations.

a. The Unit's private garage (exclusive to the Unit)
b. The Unit's driveway (LCE) (exclusive to the Unit)

c. Designated Guest Parking Areas (common elements, limited quantity).

Parking allocation and location shall be consistent with the approved Site Plan and Plat, including private garages, LCE driveways, and designated quest stalls.

(ii) Driveways as Limited Common Elements (LCE). Each Unit's driveway is an LCE reserved for the exclusive use of the Unit it serves. Owners shall not obstruct driveways or use driveways in a manner that interferes with emergency access, snow removal, or adjacent circulation.

(iii) Guest Parking Areas (Limited Outdoor Stalls). Guest Parking Areas are intended for temporary guest parking only.

a. Guest Parking shall not be used for Owner/Resident routine parking when garage/driveway parking is available.
b. Guest Parking may not be used for vehicle storage.
c. The Association may adopt reasonable rules, including time limits, permitting, seasonal restrictions, or enforcement measures to ensure availability for guests.

(iv) Prohibited Parking. No parking is permitted:

a. On lawns/landscaping or non-paved areas
b. In fire lanes or posted "No Parking" areas
c. Blocking sidewalks, access drives, utilities, mail/service areas, dumpsters, or snow removal routes
d. In a manner that impedes emergency access

(v) Trailers / RVs / Boats / Commercial Vehicles. Parking or storage of trailers, RVs, boats, and similar vehicles may be restricted by Association rules and limited to short-duration loading/unloading only, unless a designated area is approved.

J. Trash, Recycling and Storage. Trash and recycling must be stored in approved containers and placed for pickup only during permitted windows. Containers must be returned promptly after collection. No accumulation of debris or discarded materials is permitted.

K. Signs. No exterior signs are permitted except.

a. Official community signage approved by Declarant/Association
b. Required construction or contractor signage during development (if applicable)
c. Small security notices (if allowed by the Association)

W. Noxious Activity. No noxious or offensive activity shall be carried on in any Unit, the Common Elements, or the Limited Common Elements, nor shall anything be done therein which may be or become an annoyance or nuisance to others.

X. Alteration, Construction, or Removal. Nothing shall be altered or constructed in or removed from the Common Elements, except upon the written consent of the Association.

Y. Conflict. The above rules and regulations and those which may be hereafter adopted by the Association, are in addition to the Declaration, and the documents, contracts, declarations, and easements set forth in the Declaration, and in the event of a conflict, the Declaration, and contracts, declarations, and easements set forth and referenced therein shall govern.

Z. Remedies. Failure to comply with any of these Bylaws or any other rules, regulations, covenants, conditions, or restrictions imposed by the Act, the Declaration, or the Board shall be grounds for action to recover sums due for damages or injunctive relief or both, maintainable for the Association or, in a proper case, by an aggrieved member.

2. Maintenance and Repair of Units. Every Unit Owner must perform properly or cause to be performed all maintenance and repair work within his or her own Unit which if omitted would affect the Condominium or a portion belonging to other Unit Owners, and such Unit Owners shall be personally liable to the Association for any damages caused by their failure to do so.

3. Limited Common Elements. Every Unit Owner must maintain the Limited Common Elements appurtenant to his or her Unit in clean and proper condition. No objects or structures other than approved moveable furniture or decorative pieces, shall be placed thereon without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Association. Every Unit Owner shall have the right to decorate the Limited Common Elements appurtenant to his or her Unit in a nonstructural manner provided that decorations which are visible to other Units or to the public shall have the prior written approval of the Board of Directors of the Association.

4. Additional Rules and Regulations. Additional rules and regulations concerning the use of the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements may be promulgated and amended by the Board of Directors. Copies of such rules and regulations shall be furnished by the Board of Directors to each Unit Owner prior to their effective date.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL

1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the unincorporated association shall begin on the first day of January and end on the 31st day of December in each year.

2. Seal. The Board of Directors shall not have a corporate seal.

ARTICLE VIII
AMENDMENTS

1. By Members. These Bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed and new Bylaws may be adopted by the members, at any meeting called for such purpose, by an affirmative vote of Unit Owners having 75% or more of the votes.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

1. Record of Ownership. Every Unit Owner shall promptly cause to be duly recorded or filed of record the deed, lease, assignment or other conveyance to him or her of such Unit or other evidence of his or her title thereto, and shall file such lease with and present such other evidence of this title to the Board of Directors, and the Secretary shall maintain all such information in the record of ownership of the Association.

2. Mortgages. Any Unit Owner who mortgages his or her Unit or any interest therein shall notify the Board of Directors of the name and address of this mortgagee, and shall maintain all such information in the record of ownership of the Association. The Board of Directors at the written request of any mortgagee shall furnish timely written notice of the following:

A. Any condemnation loss or any casualty loss which affects the material portion of the property or any Unit on which there is a first mortgage held, insured, or guaranteed by such mortgagee, insurer or guarantor, as applicable;

B. Any delinquency in the payment of assessments owed by a Unit Owner subject to a first mortgage held, insured or guaranteed by such mortgagee, insurer or guarantor, which may remain uncured for a period of sixty (60) days.

C. Any lapse, cancellation or material modification of any insurance policy maintained by the Association; or

D. Any proposed action which will require the consent of a specified percentage of eligible mortgagees.

The Board of Directors at the request of any prospective purchaser of any Unit or interest therein shall report to such person the amount of any assessments against such Unit then due and unpaid.

The Association shall be required to make available to Unit Owners and mortgagees, and to holders, insurers, or guarantors of any mortgage, current copies of the Declaration, Bylaws, other rules concerning the project and the books records and financial statements of the Association. “Available” means available for inspection, upon request, during normal business hours or under other reasonable circumstances.

3. Books of Receipts and Expenditures: Availability for Examination. The Association shall keep detailed, accurate records using standard bookkeeping procedures or receipts and expenditures affecting the Common Elements, specifying and itemizing the maintenance and repair expenses of the Common Elements and any other expenses incurred. The records and the vouchers authorizing the payments shall be available for examination by the Unit Owners at convenient hours.

4. Indemnity of Officers and Directors. Every person who is or was a director or an officer of the Association (together with the heirs, executors and administrators of such person) shall be indemnified by the Association against all loss, costs, damages, and expenses (including reasonable attorney fees) asserted against, incurred by, or imposed upon him or her in connection with or resulting from any claim action, suit, or proceeding, including criminal proceedings, to which he or she is made or threatened to be made a party by reason of his or her being or having been such director or officer, except as to matters as to which he or she shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct. In the event of a settlement, indemnification shall be provided only in connection with such matters covered by the settlement as to which the Association is advised by counsel that the person to be indemnified has not been guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his or her duty as such director or officer in relation to the matter involved. The Association, by its Board of Directors, may indemnify in like manner, or with any limitations, any employee or former employee of the Association with respect to any action taken or not taken in his or her capacity as such employee. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall be in addition to all rights to which officers, directors or employees may be entitled as a matter of law.

All liability, loss, damage, costs and expenses incurred or suffered by the Association by reason or arising out of or in connection with the foregoing indemnification provisions shall be treated and handled by the Association as common expenses; provided, however, that nothing in this Article contained shall be deemed to obligate the Association to indemnify any Member or Unit Owner who is or has been an employee, director or officer of the Association with respect to any duties or obligations assumed or liabilities incurred by him or her under and by virtue of the Declaration, Wisconsin's Condominium Ownership Act, the Article and Bylaws of the Association, as a member of the Association, or owner of a Unit covered thereby.

5. Subordination. These Bylaws are subordinate and subject to all provisions of the Declaration and any amendments thereto and the Condominium Ownership Act under the laws of the State of Wisconsin, which shall control in case of any conflict. All terms herein (except where clearly repugnant to the context) shall have the same meaning as in the Declaration or said Condominium Ownership Act.

6. Interpretation. In case any provision of these Bylaws shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not render invalid any other provision hereof which can be given effect. Nothing in these Bylaws shall be deemed or construed to authorize the Association or Board of Directors to conduct or engage in any active business for profit on behalf of any or all of the Unit Owner.

7. Association Mailing Address. The mailing address of the association is: 3875 Kettle Ct E., Delafield, WI 53018.

8. Gender and Number. Wherever from the context it appears appropriate, each term stated in either the singular or the plural shall include the singular and the plural, and pronouns stated in either the masculine, feminine, or the neuter gender shall include the masculine, feminine, and neuter.

9. Captions. Captions contained in this Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and in no way define, limit, or extend the scope or intent of this Agreement or any provision thereof.
