

LIFE at the KETTLE MORAINE COMPOUND

2775 E Moraine Drive

A Note from the Sellers:

Nearly 30 years of weekend getaways, four-season recreation, major family holidays, kids' gatherings, adult parties, retreats, golf outings, and even a wedding/reception.

Four Seasons of Recreation

Activities at the property changed with the seasons and included:

- Boating, kayaking and golf during the summer
 - Boat storage in the covered area behind the sport court
- Hiking and hunting during the fall
- Deer camp and pheasant hunts
- Skiing and tubing during the winter
- Hiking in the spring
- Sporting activities in the sports court throughout the year
- Winter nights roasting marshmallows and making s'mores around the large hearth in the Great Room

Family Gatherings

- Thanksgiving & Christmas
 - Accommodations for 22 family members. The Great Room was set with a large table for Thanksgiving dinner, followed by hours around the fire pit while the kids rode ATVs, hiked or played in the sport court.

Gatherings with Friends

Over the years, the property was also used for:

- Large gatherings for the kids and their friends
- Basketball, volleyball and rollerblading in the sport court
- Friend sleepovers
- Post-season basketball and volleyball parties
- Birthday parties
- Three post-prom parties
- Seasonal reunions and gatherings during the college years
- New Year's parties
- Post-pheasant-hunt parties

Special Gatherings & Events

- A friend's daughter loved the setting so much that she held her wedding and reception in the property's two fields.
- The property was also made available to different church groups for retreats and social functions.
- Weekend retreats were offered as auction items for charity events.
- Two annual golf outings were hosted at the property, with accommodations for several foursomes.
