Per the Association meeting of February 17, 2007, a motion was made by Norm Kufahl and seconded by Tom Fabitz, that all FOR SALE signs should only be placed in the front windows or in the garden area under the front windows. This motion was unanimously carried.

Per the Association meeting of October 6, 2007, the annual meeting for the Chief Kewaskum Trio Condominium Association will be held the first Saturday in October.

The By-laws have been amended, per the October 6, 2007 meeting to have five Directors. Currently the By-laws state that there should be three Directors. Directors shall be one person per household; not a husband and wife.

Per the Board meeting of May 1, 2008, the following decisions were made by the Board:

There will be no swimming pools allowed in the common area unless they are kiddy pools. If a kiddy pool is used, it must be emptied as soon as it is no longer in use.

No trampolines are allowed.

When using your gas or charcoal grill, it must be moved to the far end of the deck.

Fire places and/or fire pits are not allowed to be used on the decks.

The following items are brought to your attention and for information purposes only:

Please be sure to keep your dryer vents clean all year long.

The Board encourages all unit owners to plant trees in their back yards.

The new condo at the end of the street will not belong to our association.

Information from the Board of Directors dated June 4, 2009

The summer months are here and there are some items that need to be addressed.

Please refer to page 9 of your BY-Laws Article IX Section 9.02-Typical Expenses.

(1) Maintaining the grounds which are part of the common elements including:
(a) cutting the shrubs and trees, (the unit owners shall be responsible for maintaining a six foot ground area around each respective unit.)

Therefore, according to our by-laws, all unit owners are responsible for the pulling and or killing of weeds and replacing mulch under their decks and other flower beds to the side or the rear of their unit.

All trees on the front lawns need to be watered by the unit owners after a period of no rain. This will save the trees from expiring.

Please add to your by-laws:

The Board has decided that the following list of trees that should not be planted in the common areas are as follows:

Cotton wood, no large fruit bearing trees, ash trees, weeping willows, box elder, silver maple, honey locust (Male and female) and silver maple. These trees would cause problems for the lawn cutting service as they drop leaves, fruit and branches.

If you have any questions, prior to purchasing your tree or trees, contact one of the Board Members.

Amendment to the By-Laws of Chief Kewaskum Trio Condo Association

PLEASE ATTACH TO YOUR BY-LAWS

At the Annual meeting, which was held on October 6, 2012, the association members who were present, voted to allow "For Sale" signs to be placed on the front lawns of the unit that is for sale.

Motion was made by Norm Kufahl and seconded by Gerry Hinze and unanimously carried.

This amendment nullifies the amendment dated February 17, 2007

Please correct your BY-Laws as follows:

Under Article VI powers and duties of the board of directors:

SECTION 6.02 - Specified section (5), the first sentence should read: Prepare on or before September 1st of each year an annual budget for consideration ETC.

Currently the section reads on or before November 1st.

Please attach to your by-laws.

As of May 1, 2014, the association board voted that any additional plants that any unit owner would like in the front planting area, will have to be purchased, planted and maintained by the unit owner. From the date that stone is placed in the front area, the unit owner will be responsible for this area.

Existing plantings will be maintained by the unit owner.

Unit owners may add plants, mulch or stone under their decks, however this will be at the expense of the unit owner. If the unit owner would rather have the association add mulch or stone, the association will bill the unit owner for materials and labor.

A motion was made by Tom Drake and seconded by Dave Jung to accept this proposal. All board members voted Aye.
