

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Condominium Name: Creekside Owners Association

This Executive Summary was prepared or revised on September 21, 2026 (insert date).

This Executive Summary highlights some of the information prospective purchasers are most interested in learning, as well as some of the information they should consider when contemplating the purchase of a residential condominium unit. The following sections either briefly summarize pertinent information or direct prospective buyers to specific documents, sections and/or pages of the condominium materials that discuss a topic in detail. A section identified with an  icon may refer a prospective purchaser to specific page numbers or sections of the condominium materials for more information about a topic.

This summary is not intended to replace the prospective purchaser's review of the condominium declaration, bylaws and other condominium disclosure materials nor is it a substitute for a professional review of the condominium documents or legal advice.

Condominium materials can be amended in a way that might change the rights and responsibilities of Unit Owners. Wisconsin law allows the Unit Owners to amend the condominium declaration, bylaws and other condominium documents if the required votes are obtained. Some of these changes may alter a Unit Owner's legal rights and responsibilities with regard to the condominium unit, including some of the information included in this Executive Summary. Unit Owners and prospective purchasers should review the amendment requirements in the declaration, bylaws, rules and regulations, or other condominium documents.

 For condominium document references regarding condominium document amendment procedures and requirements, see contact Board of Directors

This Executive Summary was prepared on the date stated on page one by Mary Mooney
Secretary (print name and title or position).

 Instructions for Completing the Executive Summary. The Executive Summary is one of the condominium disclosure documents that must be furnished to a prospective purchaser of a residential condominium unit. The Executive Summary addresses the topics set forth in Wis. Stat. § 703.33(1)(h) in clear, plain language or by indicating the location within the disclosure materials where the information may be found. The Executive Summary must state the date on which it is prepared or revised. It shall be revised whenever a change in the condominium materials necessitates a corresponding revision to the Executive Summary. The preparer of the Executive Summary should consult an attorney with any questions concerning preparation of the Executive Summary.

 Executive Summary Legal Requirements. Per Wis. Stat. § 703.33(1m), the declarant (developer) or the association is responsible for preparing the Executive Summary and revising it whenever a change is made in the disclosure materials that necessitates a corresponding revision to the Executive Summary. An Executive Summary must appear in the condominium disclosure materials directly following the index [Wis. Stat. § 703.33(2)], and must be attached as an addendum to the real estate condition report that a seller gives to a prospective purchaser, generally before the prospective purchaser writes an offer to purchase [Wis. Stat. § 709.02]. An Executive Summary may not be required as part of the disclosure materials for a "small condominium" (up to twelve residential units), depending upon the elections made in the declaration [Wis. Stat. § 703.365 (1) & (8)].

CAUTION: NEITHER REAL ESTATE LICENSEES NOR UNIT OWNERS SHOULD COMPLETE THIS FORM!

Total condominium reserve funds balance is $ 89,712.60

Note: This amount is current as of the date this Executive Summary was prepared or revised.

 For condominium document references regarding this condominium's reserve funds for repairs and replacements, see _____

Note: A "Statutory Reserve Account" is an account established under Wis. Stat. § 703.163 to be used for the repair and replacement of the common elements in a residential condominium (optional for a small condominium with up to 12 residential units or a mixed-use condominium with residential and non-residential units). In a new condominium, the developer initially decides whether to have a statutory reserve account, but after the declarant control period has ended, the association may opt-in or opt-out of a statutory reserve account with the written consent of a majority of the unit votes. A condominium may have other reserve accounts that are not statutory reserve accounts.

9. Fees on New Units

- ♦ Are there provisions excusing the declarant (developer) from paying assessments or modifying the declarant's obligation to pay assessments for the units still owned by the declarant during the period of declarant control?
