SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP AND OF
EASEMENTS, RESTRICTIONS AND COVENANTS FOR THE VILLAS OF RACINE CONDOMINIUMS

The Villas of Racine Condominiums (the "Condominium") was created by a Declaration, recorded in the office of Register of Deeds for Racine County on October 31, 2003 as Document No. 1941034, as amended on April 15, 2004 as Document No. 1966060 (the "Declaration").

WITNESSETH, THAT:

The extent of the ownership by each Unit Owner of the Common Elements shall be expressed as a percentage. The percentage ownership may be changed upon only unanimous written approval of all the Unit Owners in the form of an amendment to this Declaration duly recorded. In the event of condemnation by public authority as provided in Article IX of this Declaration or of loss as provided in Article X, the percentage ownership may be changed to conform with the provisions set forth therein. Each Unit's corresponding percentage of ownership in the Common Elements shall be a fraction, the numerator of which is one (1) and the denominator of which is two hundred (200). The undivided interest in the Common Elements shall not be separated from the Unit to which it appertains and shall be deemed to be leased, conveyed or encumbered with the Unit even though such interest is not expressly mentioned or described in the conveyance or other instrument.

4.02 Partition of Common Elements. There shall be no partition of the Common Elements through judicial proceedings or otherwise unless and until this Declaration is terminated and the Property is no longer held in the condominium form of ownership.

ARTICLE V GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO UNITS AND COMMON ELEMENTS

5.01 Use of Property. The Units and the Common Elements shall be used for residential purposes only, subject to the further limitations imposed by any applicable local, state or federal statute, rule, or ordinance, and further restricting the use of any portion of the Property which may be classified thereby as wetlands or floodplain.

5.02 No Severance of Ownership. No Unit Owner shall execute any deed, mortgage, lease or other instrument affecting title to the Unit ownership without including therein both his or her interest in the Unit and corresponding percentage of ownership in the Common Elements, it being the intention hereof to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Whenever a Unit is conveyed, the corresponding percentage of ownership in the Common Elements shall be automatically included in the conveyance whether the same is specifically set forth in the documents of conveyance or not.

5.03 Use of the Common Elements. Subject to the provisions of section 5.05 and section 5.06, each Unit Owner shall have the right to use the Common Elements in common with all other Unit Owners as may be required for the purposes of ingress and egress to, and use, occupancy and enjoyment of, the respective Unit owned by each Unit Owner, and to the use and enjoyment of Common facilities. Such rights shall extend to the Unit Owner and the members of the immediate family and guests and other authorized occupants and visitors of the Unit Owner. The use of the Common Elements and the rights of the Unit Owners with respect thereto shall be subject to and governed by the provisions of the Act, the Declaration and the By-Laws and rules and regulations of the Board of Directors of the Association (hereinafter described and for convenience hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Board"). The Board of Directors shall have the authority to lease or rent or grant licenses or concessions with respect to the storage areas, laundry or other parts of the Common Elements, subject to the provisions of this Declaration and the By-Laws and rules and regulations of the Association.

5.04 Maintenance of Common Elements; Common Expenses. Except as otherwise provided herein, management, repair, alteration and improvement of the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements shall be the responsibility of the Association. Each Unit Owner shall pay his or her proportionate share of the expenses of maintenance, repair, replacement, administration and operation of the Common Elements, which expenses are hereinafter referred to collectively as "Common Expenses." Such Common Expenses shall be allocated and divided equally among all Units regardless of size. Notwithstanding the foregoing, expenses associated with Limited Common Elements shall be levied against the Units to which such Limited Common Element expenses appertain in proportion to each Unit's proportional interest in the Limited Common Elements. In the event of the failure of a Unit Owner to pay such proportionate share when due, the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on the interest of such Unit Owner, as provided by the Act.

5.05 Easements.

(a) Encroachments: If by reason of the construction, settlement or shifting of any Building, or the design or construction of any Unit, any part of the Common Elements encroaches or shall hereafter encroach upon any part of any Unit, or any part of the Unit encroaches or shall hereafter encroach upon any part of the Common Elements or any other Unit, or if by reason of the design or construction of utility systems, any main pipes, ducts or conduits serving more than one Unit encroach or shall hereafter encroach upon any part of any Unit, valid easements for the maintenance of such encroachment are hereby established and shall exist for the benefit of such Unit and the Common Elements, as the case may be, so long as all or any part of the Building containing such Unit shall remain standing; provided, however, that in no event shall a valid easement for any encroachment be created in favor of the Unit Owner of any Unit or in favor of the Unit Owners of the Common Elements if such encroachment occurred due to the willful conduct of said Unit Owner or Unit Owners.

(b) Easements for Utilities: All public, semi-public or private utilities serving the Property are hereby granted the right to install, lay, construct, operate, maintain, renew, repair or replace, conduits, cables, pipes and wires and other equipment into, over, under, along and on any portion of the Common Elements for the purpose of providing the Property with the utility services, together with the reasonable right of ingress to and egress from the Property for said purpose. The Board may hereafter grant other or additional temporary or permanent easements for utility or other purposes over, under, along and on any portion of said Common Elements, and each Unit Owner hereby grants the Board an irrevocable power of attorney to execute, acknowledge and record or register for and in the name of such Unit Owner, such instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the foregoing. Easements are also hereby declared and granted to install, lay, operate, maintain, repair and replace any pipes, wires, ducts, conduits, utility lines or structural components running through the walls of a Unit whether or not such walls lie in whole or in part within the Unit boundaries.

(c) Easements to Run with the Land: All easements and rights described herein are easements appurtenant, running with the land, perpetually in full force and effect, and at all times shall inure to the benefit of and be binding on the undersigned, his or her successors and assigns, and any Unit Owner, purchaser, mortgagee and other person having any interest in the Property or any part or portion thereof. Reference in any deed of conveyance or in any mortgage or trust deed or other evidence of obligation, to the easements and rights described in this Article, or described in any other part of this Declaration, shall be sufficient to create and reserve such easements and rights to the respective grantees, mortgagees and trustees of such parcels as fully and completely as though such easements and rights were recited fully and set forth in their entirety in such documents.

(d) Easements for Police and Fire Protection: A perpetual easement is hereby granted for the free and uninterrupted access to the Property for any and all legally designated law enforcement agencies and fire departments for the performance of their duties.

(e) Easements for Post Office: A perpetual easement is hereby granted for the free and uninterrupted access to the Property for any and all legally designated representatives of the United States Postal Service for the performance of their duties.

(f) Utility Easements: Easements will be granted, as required, to municipal agencies or private parties for the installation and maintenance of the water supply, sewer and sanitation services and other utilities.

5.06 Limited Common Elements. All balconies and patios shall be Limited Common Elements for the exclusive use and possession by the Unit Owner direct access to which is provided from his or her respective Unit and which is or are located outside of and adjoining his or her respective Unit. Unless and until the Board as hereinafter provided determines to the contrary, each Unit Owner shall be responsible for the cost of repair, maintenance and appearance of any balconies and patios which are Limited Common Elements attached to his or her Unit, including (without limitation) responsibility for breakage, damage, malfunction and ordinary wear and tear. A Unit Owner shall not paint, or otherwise decorate or adorn or change the appearance of any such balcony and patio, in any manner contrary to such rules and regulations as may be established by the Board.

5.07 Separate Mortgages of Units. Each Unit Owner shall have the right to mortgage or encumber his or her own respective Unit, together with his or her respective ownership interest in the Common Elements. No Unit Owner shall have the right or authority to mortgage or otherwise encumber in any manner whatsoever the Property or any part thereof, except his or her own Unit and his or her own respective ownership interest in the Common Elements as aforesaid.

5.08 Separate Real Estate Taxes. It is intended and understood that real estate taxes are to be separately taxed to each Unit Owner for his or her Unit and his or her corresponding percentage of ownership in the Common Elements, as provided in the Act. In the event that, for any year, such taxes are not separately taxed to each Unit Owner, but are taxed on the Property as a whole, then each Unit Owner shall pay his or her proportionate share thereof in accordance with his or her respective percentage of ownership interest in the Common Elements.

5.09 Utilities. Each Unit Owner shall pay for his or her own natural gas, cable TV, telephone, electricity and other utilities which are separately metered or billed to each user by the respective utility company. Charges for utilities which are not separately metered or billed shall be treated as part of the Common Expenses.

5.10 Insurance; Unit Owners. Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for his or her own insurance on the contents of his or her own Unit, and his or her personal property stored elsewhere on the Property, as well as certain insurance coverage on the Unit, all to the extent not covered by the fire and liability insurance for all of the Unit Owners obtained as part of the Common Expenses and as set forth in greater detail in the Bylaws.

5.11 Maintenance, Repairs and Replacements of Units.

(a) By the Board: The Board shall be responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the Common Elements, the Limited Common Elements, structural elements of any Building which may be located within a Unit. In addition, the Board shall maintain, repair and replace all conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring and other facilities for the furnishing of utility services which may be located within the Unit boundaries as specified in Sections 3.02 and 3.03, exclusive of any portions of the foregoing which serve only one Unit or which may be the responsibility of any individual Unit Owner under any other provision of this Declaration. The cost of maintenance, repair, and replacement of the Common Elements shall be a common expense, except as otherwise set forth herein.

(b) By the Owner: Each Unit Owner shall maintain, repair and replace, at his or her expense:

(1) his or her Unit, and the fixtures, equipment and appliances comprising a part thereof, located therein or exclusively serving the same even if located outside the Unit, and including, without limitation, all doors within the Unit and those which open to the Unit from the outside, interior walls and partitions including drywall, windows and window apparatus and glass, sliding glass and screen doors, heating, and air conditioning equipment within the Unit, the air conditioning compressor located outside of the Unit, and the ducts, pipes, wiring, controls, fixtures and other apparatus serving only that Unit, even if located outside the Unit. Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for the cost of keeping his or her Limited Common Elements in a clean and orderly condition, including the repair and maintenance thereof as provided in Section 5.06. However, the Board may provide, by its rules and regulations, for ordinary maintenance and minor repairs and replacements to be furnished to Units by personnel as a Common Expense. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to impose a contractual liability upon the Board for maintenance, repair and replacement, but the Board's liability shall be limited to damages resulting from negligence.

(2) All of the decorating within his or her own Unit from time to time, including painting, wall papering, washing, cleaning, paneling, floor covering, lamps and other furnishings and interior decorating. Each Unit Owner shall be entitled to the exclusive use of such portions of the perimeter walls, floors and ceilings as lie within the boundaries of his or her Unit as shown on the Plat, and such Unit Owner shall maintain such portions in good condition at his or her sole expense as may be required from time to time, which said maintenance and use shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the Board. The interior surfaces of all windows forming part of a perimeter wall of a Unit shall be cleaned or washed at the expense of each respective Unit Owner.

(c) Continuing Requirement: The respective obligations of the Board and Unit Owners set forth in this Declaration shall not be limited, discharged or postponed by reason of the fact that any such maintenance, repair or replacement required to cure a latent or patent defect in material or workmanship in the construction or location of a structure on the property, nor because they may become entitled to the benefit of any construction guarantee or proceeds under policies of insurance.

5.12 Negligence of Owner. If, due to the negligent act or omission of a Unit Owner, or of a member of his or her family or household animal, or of a guest, contractor, or other authorized occupant or visitor of such Unit Owner, damage shall be caused to the Common Elements or to a Unit or Units owned by others, or maintenance, repairs or replacements shall be required which would otherwise be at the Common Expense, then such Unit Owner shall pay for such damage and such maintenance, repairs and replacements as may be determined by the Board, subject to the rules, regulations and By-Laws of the Board.

5.13 Joint Facilities. To the extent that equipment, facilities and fixtures within any Unit or Units shall be connected to similar equipment, facilities or fixtures affecting or serving other Units or the Common Elements, then the use thereof by the individual Unit Owners shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the Board. The authorized representatives of the Board, or of the manager or managing agent for the Building, shall be entitled to reasonable access to the individual Units as may be required in connection with maintenance repairs, or replacements or fixtures affecting or serving other Units or the Common Elements.

ARTICLE VI CONDEMNATION AND UNPAID ASSESSMENTS

6.01 Condemnation.

(a) In the event of condemnation under the Laws of Wisconsin of a portion of the Property including therein the residential building whereby construction of a like building cannot be reasonably effected on the remaining Property, the proceeds of said condemnation and rights of action arising thereunder shall be disturbed as follows:

(1) To the Unit Owners of the individual Units condemned, that portion of the condemnation award attributable to each Unit Owner's Unit and the right of action, if any, arising thereunder and attributable to said Unit, together with said Unit Owner's interest in the condemnation award for the Common Elements condemned plus a sum equal to said Unit Owner's interest in the remaining Common Elements to be paid by the remaining Unit Owners.

(2) To the Unit Owners of the Common Elements whose residential Units were not condemned, as their interests may appear. The Board shall determine whether legal action shall be brought on any right of action arising under the condemnation. Any award obtained by legal action, shall be disbursed to the Unit Owners as their common interests may appear, including the Unit Owners of those Units condemned as though they were voting Unit Owners.

(3) The condemnation of a Unit Owner's Unit and its non-replacement with a like Unit, shall terminate said Unit Owner's membership. The remaining members shall constitute the Unit Owners of all Common Elements and their interests therein shall be recomputed according to the ratio their Unit bears to the total of the remaining Units as set forth in this Declaration.

6.02 Responsibility of Transferees for Unpaid Assessments. In a voluntary transfer of a Unit, the transferee of the Unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the transferor for all unpaid assessments against the latter up to the time of transfer, without prejudice to the transferee's right to recover from the transferor the amount paid by the transferee therefor. However, any such transferee shall be entitled, upon a written request, to a statement from the Board or President; or managing agent of the Association, as the case may be, setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessments against the transferor due to the Association and such transferee shall not be liable for, nor shall the Unit conveyed be subject to a lien for, any unpaid assessments made by the Association against the transferor in excess of the amount therein set forth. In the event the association or the Board does not provide a statement setting forth any sums due within ten (10) business days after transferee's request for same, the association or the Board shall be barred from claiming a lien against the transferee.

ARTICLE VII DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION AND RESTORATION OF THE BUILDING

7.01 Damage or Destruction.

(a) If Insurance Proceeds Cover Cost: In the event the improvements forming a part of the Common Elements shall suffer damage or destruction from any cause and the proceeds of any policy or policies insuring against such loss, or damage, and payable by reason thereof shall be sufficient to pay the cost of repair or restoration or reconstruction, the Association acting through its Board of Directors shall undertake such repair, restoration, or reconstruction; and the insurance proceeds shall be applied by the Board or any trustee of the insurance proceeds in payment therefor; provided, however, that if the Common Elements have been damaged or destroyed to the extent of more than seventy-five percent (75%) of their value, then within sixty (60) days after said damage or destruction, shall occur, the Unit Owners may elect either to withdraw the Property from the Act as hereinafter provided in Article VIII, then such repair, restoration or reconstruction shall not be undertaken. In the event of damage or destruction to the building aggregating less than fifty percent (50%) of the total value of the Building, said Building shall be promptly repaired or restored, subject to the provisions of the Bylaws.

(b) Insufficient Insurance: In the event the Property or the improvements thereon so damaged are not insured against the risk causing the loss or damage, or the insurance proceeds are not sufficient to pay the cost of repair, restoration or reconstruction, and the difference between the cost of repair, restoration, or reconstruction, and the Unit Owners and all other parties in interest do not voluntarily make provision for reconstruction of the improvements within ninety (90) days after said damage or destruction shall occur, then the provisions of the Act in such event shall apply.

7.02 Substantial Restoration. Repair, restoration or reconstruction of the improvements, as used in this Article, means restoring the improvements to substantially the same condition in which they existed prior to the fire or other disaster, with each Unit and the Common Elements having the same vertical and horizontal boundaries as before.

ARTICLE VIII SALE OF THE PROPERTY: REMOVAL FROM CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP

8.01 Voluntary Sale of the Property. The Unit Owners by affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the total vote, at a meeting of Unit Owners called for such purpose, may elect to sell the Property as a whole. Such action shall be binding upon all Unit Owners, and it shall thereupon become the duty of every Unit Owner to execute and deliver such instruments, and to perform all acts as in manner and form may be necessary to effect such sale, provided, however, that any Unit Owner who did not vote in favor of such action and who has filed written objection thereto with the Board within twenty (20) days after the date of the meeting at which said sale was approved shall be entitled to receive from the proceeds of such sale an amount equivalent to the value of his or her interest, as determined by a fair appraisal, less the amount of any unpaid assessments or charges due and owing from such Unit Owner. In the absence of agreement on an appraiser, such Unit Owner and the Board may each select an appraiser, and the two so selected shall select a third, and the fair market value as determined by a majority of the three appraisers so selected shall control. If either party shall fail to select an appraiser, then the one designate by the other party shall make the appraisal.

8.02 Removal Procedure. All of the Unit Owners may remove the Property from the provisions of this Declaration by executing and recording an instrument to that effect. All holders of liens affecting any of the Units must consent in writing, said consent to be duly recorded, to the transfer of their lien to the percentage of undivided interest of the Unit Owner in the property.

In the event of the removal of the Property from the provisions of this Declaration, the Unit Owners shall own the property as tenants in common, each holding an undivided interest in the property in the same percentage in which he or she held an ownership interest in the Common Elements.

ARTICLE IX CLAIMS AND REMEDIES FOR BREACH OF COVENANTS, RESTRICTIONS AND REGULATIONS

9.01 Abatement and Enjoyment. The violation of any rule, restriction, condition or regulation adopted by the Board, or the breach or default of any covenant, By-Law or provision contained herein or contained in the Act, shall give the Board the right, in addition to the other rights set forth in the Condominium Documents and the Act:

(a) To enter upon the Property upon which, or as to which such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist thereon contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and Declarant, or his or her successors or assigns, or the Board, or its agents, shall not thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass;

(b) To prohibit the use of all of the amenities of the condominium and the Common Elements thereof, except for the right of ingress and egress over the drives located on the Common Elements and the use of the individual Unit by the defaulting Unit Owner;

(c) To enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any breach;

(d) To fine for any such violation as set forth in the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations; and

(e) To seek damages by appropriate legal proceedings as detailed below.

In any action or proceeding brought on behalf of the Association with respect to any matters referenced in this Section 9.01, the Association shall be entitled to recover from the Unit Owner its costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney fees) incurred therein.

9.02 Owner Claims: Mediation and Arbitration Requirements. In the event that a Unit Owner or resident has a claim to assert against the Association or any member of the Board where the claim relates to or arises from the member's service on the Board, that claim must be submitted to binding arbitration, with Resolute Systems, Inc. or such other arbitrator or arbitrator facility agreed to by the parties, or by the chief judge of the county if the parties can't agree upon an arbitrator and Resolute Systems, Inc. is no longer in business or has a conflict. The unit owner(s) and the Association shall each pay half the cost of the arbitration. Such claims must be commenced with the arbitrator within one year of the date that the Unit Owner or resident knew or should have known of the underlying facts giving rise to the claim. Such claims may also be submitted to non-binding mediation before or during arbitration at the election of the claimant, with both sides paying half the cost of the mediator. The Association shall also have the option of arbitrating a claim against a Unit Owner (any non-assessment collection and non-declaratory judgment-related claim) using the same procedure above.

9.03 Attorney's Fees. The prevailing party in any claim brought by or against the Association or a Director by a Unit Owner or resident shall be entitled to recover their attorney's fees and costs. In addition, for any claim that is mediated or arbitrated as set forth in Section 9.02 above, the Association is entitled to recover its pre-mediation and/or pre-arbitration attorney's fees and costs if it is ultimately the prevailing party.

9.04 Damages. The Association may assess a Unit Owner the actual damages the Association incurs from the Unit Owner's (its residents, occupants, or guests) failure to abide by the Condominium Declaration, Bylaws, or Rules and Regulations (the "Condominium Documents"). Where appropriate, the Association may also fine for violations of the Condominium Documents, and a schedule of progressive fines shall be set forth in the Rules and Regulations. There shall be a Grievance Procedure set forth in the Rules and Regulations, whereby a Unit Owner may contest the alleged violation. The decision of the Grievance Committee is final and binding. The Association may also assess to the Unit Owner interest and late fees on unpaid fines and assessments, as well as attorney's fees and costs incident to the Unit Owner's failure to abide by the Condominium Documents.

ARTICLE X GENERAL PROVISIONS

No covenants, restrictions, conditions, obligations or provisions contained in this Declaration shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur or any time lapse.

10.05 Amendments to Declaration.

(a) Amendment: Except as may be otherwise required by the Act or except as otherwise provided for in this Declaration, this Declaration may be amended by the written consent of Unit Owners having at least sixty-seven percent (67%) of the votes in the Association, and their first mortgagees, if any, and in the manner provided by Section 703.09(2) of the Act, as amended. Copies of amendments shall be certified by the President and Secretary of the Association in a form suitable for recording. Such members or officers shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by them on behalf of the Unit Owners of the Association. The liability of any Unit Owner arising out of any contract made by such members or officers or out of the aforesaid indemnity shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his or her percentage interest of all the Unit Owners in the Common Elements bears to the total percentage interest of all the Unit Owners in the Common Elements. Each agreement made by such members or officers or by the managing agent on behalf of the Unit Owners or the Association shall be executed by such members or officers or the managing agent, as the case may be, as agents for the Unit Owners or the Board or Association.
