Autumn Ridge Condominium Association

INTRODUCTION:

The community lifestyle associated with condominium ownership is unique. In such a community, it is imperative that a harmonious atmosphere is achieved and preserved. Respect for the rights of our fellow neighbors to enjoy their home and surrounding grounds should be shared by all in the Association community. It is most important that the rights of others are recognized and protected while, at all times, acting in the best interest of the Association as a whole.

The following Rules and Regulations (“Rules”) were formulated for the purpose of governing the day to day use of the Common and Limited Common Elements and the activities of owners, residents, and visitors alike. They were prepared using the best judgment of the Board of Directors, accompanied by substantial input from Ownership, and are based on Wisconsin Condominium Law and the Autumn Ridge Condominium Association Declaration and By-laws.

All owners share in the responsibility of following and enforcing these Rules. The Rules are best enforced through personal friendly contact, but an owner seeking to avoid confrontation may also report transgressions to the managing agent or the Board of Directors for remedy. Inasmuch as no set of rules and regulations can address every conceivable situation, it is expected that these Rules will, from time to time, be altered and updated as experience and circumstance may dictate.

POLICY STATEMENT:

In order to maintain high standards of appearance and quality living at Autumn Ridge Condominium Association, Inc., (“Association”), all unit owners and their respective tenants, guests, successors and assigns shall abide by these Rules which have been adopted by the Association.
