Section 7. Voting.

Each unit owner shall furnish the Association with the owner's name and current mailing address. No unit owner may vote at meetings of the Association until this information is furnished. The owner or owners of each unit, or some person designated by the owner or owners to act as proxy and who must be an owner, shall be entitled to cast the one vote belonging to the unit at all meetings of unit owners. The designation of any proxy shall be made in writing, to the Secretary, and shall be revocable at any time by written notice to the Secretary by the owner or owners so designated. Any proxy shall be effective only for a maximum period of 180 days following its issuance unless granted to a mortgagee or land contract vendor of a unit. Where ownership is in the name of two or more persons, the vote may be cast by only one owner. Where the unit is sold under a land contract, the land contract vendee shall be entitled to vote the vote for that unit (where there are two or more vendees, they shall be considered as one owner with no additional voting rights). Where the unit is leased, the lessor shall be entitled to vote the vote for the unit. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, if the Association records indicate that a unit is in arrears and the amount necessary to bring the account current has not been paid at the time of the meeting, or if the Association has recorded a statement of condominium lien on a unit and the amount necessary to release the lien has not been paid at the time of the meeting, this unit owner may not vote at the meeting.

Section 8. Majority of Unit Owners.

As used in these By-laws, the term "majority of unit owners" shall mean those unit owners having more than 50% of the authorized votes of all unit owners present in person or by proxy and voting at any meeting of the unit owners, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 7 of this Article III.

Land contract vendors shall not be members, rather, the land contract vendees shall be members. Membership shall belong to and may not be separated from ownership of any unit.

(b) Initial membership in the Association shall be established by the recording of the Declaration in the office of the Register of Deeds for Milwaukee County, Wisconsin. Transfer of membership in the Association shall be established by the recording in the office of the Register of Deeds for Milwaukee County of a deed or other instrument establishing a change of record title to a unit or the recording in that office of a land contract. A certified copy of the instrument or land contract shall be delivered to the Association by the transferee or vendee. The transferee designated by the instrument or the vendee shall then become a member of the Association, and the membership of the prior owner or vendor shall then be terminated.

Until the delivery the transferee or vendee shall not be entitled to vote as a member of the Association and shall not be entitled to notice of meetings of unit owners.

Tenants of unit owners shall not be entitled to vote and shall not be entitled to be designated as proxies. The Association shall maintain a current roster of names and addresses of every unit owner to whom notice of meetings of the Association must be sent.

Section 1. Determination of Common Expenses.

The Board of Directors shall, at least annually, prepare a budget for the Property, determine the amount of the common expenses for the forthcoming year and allocate and assess the common expenses for the forthcoming year and allocate and assess the common expenses against the unit owners according to their respective undivided percentage interests in the common elements as described in the Declaration. The assessment for common expenses for the entire year shall be effective as of the date set by the Board and shall be payable at such time or times as the Board of Directors shall determine. The common expenses shall include, among other things, the cost of all insurance premiums on all policies of insurance required to be or which have been obtained by the Board of Directors pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 of this Article V. Common expenses shall be deemed to be any and all assessments made by the Board of Directors assessed against a unit owner's account, including but not limited to, such amounts as the Board of Directors may deem proper for the operation and maintenance of the Property, costs of collection and actual attorney fees for enforcement of these condominium documents, an amount for working capital which in the initial operation of the property shall be equal to two months assessment collected at the time of the first sale of said unit, for general operating reserve, for a reserve fund for replacement of common elements, for making up any deficit in the common expenses for any prior year, and for those costs of sewer and water service furnished for the common elements of the Property.

The initial contribution to the working, capital fund is not refundable to, or assignable by, the unit owner. The common expenses may also include such amounts as may be required for the purchase or lease by the Board of Directors or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all unit owners, of any unit whose owner has elected to sell such unit or of any unit which is to be sold at a foreclosure or other judicial sale. The Board of Directors shall advise each unit owner in writing of the amount of common expenses payable by the unit owner, and shall furnish copies to all unit owners of each budget on which the common expenses are based.

Section 2. Insurance.

The Board of Directors shall obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring all common elements, and limited common elements for the units as originally constructed and all the buildings, except that such insurance shall not include coverage for any and all interior improvements, fixtures furniture, furnishings or other personal property supplied or installed for or by unit owners. Any policies of insurance shall name as insureds the Association, and all unit owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear, in an amount equal to but not less than the full replacement value of the common elements and limited common elements, without deduction for depreciation. Each policy shall provide that proceeds shall be payable to the Association or the insurance trustee as provided in these By-laws as Trustee for all unit owners and their mortgagees or land contract vendors as their interests may appear. All such policies shall provide that adjustment of loss shall be made by the Association, and that the net insurance proceeds, if $10,000 or less, shall be payable to the Association, and if more than $10,000, shall be payable to the insurance trustee.

All Policies of physical damage insurance shall contain waivers of subrogation and waivers of any defense based on co-insurance or of invalidity arising from any acts of the insured, and shall provide that the policies may not be canceled or substantially modified without at least ten days prior written notice to all of the insureds. Prior to obtaining any policy of fire insurance or any renewal of the policy, the Association shall obtain an appraisal from a fire insurance company or otherwise of the full replacement value of the common and limited common elements without deduction for depreciation for the purpose of determining the amount of fire insurance to be purchased.

The unit owner shall obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the unit. The policy of insurance shall name as insureds the unit owners and the unit owner's mortgagee, as their interests may appear, in an amount equal to not less than the replacement value of the unit, without deduction for depreciation.

The Board of Directors shall also obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, public liability insurance in such limits as the Association may from time to time determine, covering each member of the Board of Directors, the managing agent, the manager, and each unit owner and appropriate fidelity bond coverage for any person handling Association funds. The public liability coverage shall also cover cross liability claims of one insured against another. The Board of Directors shall review the insurance limits once each year. Until the first meeting, of the Board of Directors following the first annual meeting of the unit owners, the public liability insurance shall be in a single limit of at least $1,000,000.00, covering all claims for bodily injury or property damage arising out one occurrence. The Association shall obtain and maintain worker's compensation insurance to the extent necessary to comply with any applicable laws.

Unit owners or their mortgagees or land contract vendors shall not be prohibited from carrying other insurance for their own benefit provided that all policies shall contain waivers of subrogation, and that the liability of the carriers issuing insurance obtained by the Association shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any additional insurance. The insurance obtained by the Association will not cover the contents of units or public liability claims arising out of occurrences happening within the boundaries of the units.

Section 3. Repair and Reconstruction After Damage.

(a) In the event of any damage to or destruction of the common elements or limited common limited elements in the amount of $10,000 or less whether or not the insurance proceeds, if any, are sufficient to complete repair or reconstruction, the Board of Directors is authorized to and shall arrange for the prompt repair and reconstruction, and the Board of Directors shall disburse any insurance proceeds to the contractors engaged in the repair and reconstruction in appropriate progress payments. Any cost of repair and reconstruction in excess of the insurance proceeds shall be a common expense, and the Board of Directors may assess all the unit owners for the deficit as part of the common expenses.

By acceptance of the deed to a unit, each unit owner shall be deemed to have consented to this authorization and direction for repair and reconstruction. The authorization and direction shall be deemed continuous action by the Association by unanimous consent pursuant to Section 11, Article III of these By-laws and shall constitute the determination by the unit owners and the Association to repair or reconstruct as required by the Act. If, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, a determination to a repair and reconstruct is submitted to the vote of the unit owners, then the affirmative vote of one unit owner shall be sufficient to determine to repair or reconstruct.

(b) In the event the common elements or limited common elements are destroyed or damaged in an amount in excess of $10,000 and insurance proceeds, if any, less an amount not exceeding $10,000 are insufficient to complete repair or reconstruction, the Association shall determine within 90 days whether to proceed with repair or reconstruction, or whether to sell the Property. A decision to repair or reconstruct may be made by a vote of one-third of unit owners and one-third of mortgagees of units (based on one vote for each first mortgage owner). A decision not to repair or reconstruct or a decision to sell the Property may be made by a vote of two-thirds of the unit owners and two-thirds of mortgagees of units (based on one vote for each first mortgage owner). If the Association determines to repair or reconstruct, the Board of Directors shall arrange for the repair or reconstruction in accordance with the preceding paragraph of this section. If the Association determines not to repair or reconstruct or decides to sell, the Property shall be deemed to be owned in common by the unit owners in the same percentages as previously owned by each unit owner in the common elements and be subject to an action for partition at the suit of any unit owner. In the event of a partition action, the net proceeds of sale, together with the net insurance proceeds, shall be divided by the Board of Directors or the insurance trustee, as the case may be among all the unit owners in proportion to their respective interests in common elements, after first paying out of the share of each unit owner, to the extent sufficient for the purpose, all liens on the undivided interest in the property owned by each unit owner.

(c) In the event the common elements or limited common elements are destroyed or damaged in an amount in excess of $10,000 and insurance proceeds less an amount not exceeding $10,000, are sufficient to complete repair or reconstruction, the Board of Directors is authorized and shall arrange for the repair or reconstruction in accordance with paragraph (a) of Section 3. Article V.

By acceptance of the deed to a unit, each unit owner shall be deemed to have consented to this authorization and direction for repair and reconstruction. The authorization and direction shall be deemed continuous action by the Association by unanimous consent pursuant to Section 11, Article III of these Bylaws and shall constitute the determination by the unit owners and the Association to repair or reconstruct as required by the Act.

(d) In the event of damage to a unit, the unit owner shall arrange for the prompt repair and reconstruction of the unit. In the event that the unit owner does not complete the repair and reconstruction within 90 days after the date of the loss, the Association may perform the necessary work and assess the unit owner for the cost of the work as a special assessment.

Section 4. Payment of Common Expenses/Assessments
 Against Declarant Owned Units

All unit owners shall pay the common expenses assessed by the Board of Directors pursuant to the provisions of Section 1 of this Article at such time or times as the Board of Directors shall determine. A late charge of up to $25.00 may be imposed by the Board of Directors against a unit owner if any balance in common expenses remains unpaid by the 10th day of the month when due.

No unit owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the common expenses assessed against the unit after a sale, transfer or other conveyance of the unit by the owner (made in accordance with the provisions of Section 1, Article VII of these By-laws). A purchaser of a unit shall be liable for the payment of common expenses assessed against the unit before the acquisition by the purchaser of the unit, except that if the Association or Board of Directors furnishes a statement pursuant to the Act, the liability shall be limited to the amount set forth in the statement. However, a mortgagee or other purchaser of a unit at a foreclosure sale of such unit shall not be liable for and such unit shall not be subject to a lien for the payment of common charges assessed prior to the foreclosure sale.

Each unit owner shall be obligated to pay common expenses under these By-laws notwithstanding the fact that the unit owner may have a pending dispute with the Association or the Board of Directors on any matter. Each unit shall be subject to assessment after such time as an occupancy permit shall have been issued for initial occupancy of the unit and the unit has been sold to the first purchaser.

The Board of Directors shall have the right and duty to attempt to recover the common expenses, together with interest, late charges, the expenses (including actual attorneys fees) of filing and releasing any lien for the unpaid common expenses and the expenses of an action brought against the unit owner, or by foreclosure of the lien on the unit granted by the Act. The Board of Directors shall also have the right to prohibit a unit owner from voting at a meeting of the Association if the unit owner is in default for more than 10 days and has not paid the amount due by the time of the meeting.

Section 7. Foreclosure of Liens and Money Judgments for Unpaid Common Expenses.

In any action brought by the Board of Directors to foreclose a lien on a unit because of unpaid common expenses, the unit owner shall be required to pay reasonable rent for the use of the unit, and the plaintiff in the foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rent. The Board of Directors, acting on behalf of all unit owners, shall have power to purchase the unit at the foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, mortgage, vote the votes belonging to, convey or otherwise deal with the unit after purchase. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waving the lien securing the amount due and the unit owner shall be obligated to pay all costs of collection including actual attorney fees.

Section 8. Statement of Common Expenses.

The Board of Directors shall promptly provide any unit owner who makes a request in writing with a written statement of the unit owner's unpaid common expenses.

Section 9. Abatement, Enjoining and Enforcement of Violations.

The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board of Directors, or the breach of any By-law, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give the Board of Directors the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these By-laws: (a) to enter the unit in which the violation or breach exists and to abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting unit owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist in the unit contrary to the intent and meaning, of the provisions of this section. (h) No signs, including but not limited to signs advertising sale of units, shall be allowed in the common elements, limited common elements, or units, except as specifically authorized by the Board of Directors and except as provided in Section 10 B of the Declaration.

(i) It shall be the responsibility of each unit owner to see to it that the members of his or her household, tenants, employees, agents and guests abide by the provisions of the Declaration, these By-laws, any and all Rules and Regulations, and the Condominium Ownership Act and not be in default of the same. In the event of a violation of any provision of the Declaration, these By-laws, and any and all Rules and Regulations, or the Condominium Ownership Act, which violation is not corrected within a reasonable time, the Association may take such action as it deems appropriate, including legal action, to correct the violation. In the event the Association takes legal action against any unit owner or occupant of a unit which results in a judgment in favor of the Association, the defendant in such action shall pay the Association's costs and actual attorneys' fees.

Section 13. Additions, Alterations or Improvements by Board of Directors.

Whenever in the judgment of the Board of Directors the common and limited common elements require additions, alterations or improvements costing, in excess of $10,000 and the making of the additions, alterations or improvements have been approved by a majority of unit owners, the Board of Directors shall proceed with the additions, alterations or improvements and shall assess all unit owners for the cost as a common expense. Any additions, alterations or improvements costing $10,000 or less may be made by the Board of Directors without approval of the unit owners, and the cost shall constitute a common expense.

Section 14. Structural Additions, Alterations, or Improvements by Unit Owners.

A unit owner may make additions, improvements or alterations within the unit which do not impair the structural integrity or lessen the support of any portion of the unit. No unit owner shall make any change in, nor affix anything to, the exterior of the unit or to any portion of the Property except for those items or installations that may be in conformity with a particularly stated local, state or federal law such as the Over the Air Devices law previously cited in the Declaration. Unit owners shall refer to the rules established by the Board for Over the Air Reception Devices (see the disclosure materials).

Section 20. Statutory Reserve Account.

Declarant has opted out of establishing a statutory reserve account at the time of creation of the condominium. Establishment of a statutory reserve account shall be addressed at the first annual meeting to be held within one year after expiration of Declarant control.

A unit owner's sale of the unit shall include the sale of (a) the undivided percentage interest in the common and limited common elements belonging to the unit; and (b) the interest of the owner in any other assets of the Association. At such time that a unit owner shall sell a unit, the unit owner shall seek issuance from the Association of a letter report as to the status of their individual account as to whether or not all assessments levied (if any) against their respective unit and monthly maintenance fees have been paid to date. The Association shall have the right to charge the unit owner a "transfer of ownership fee" for the processing of each sale. Original sales by the developer shall be excluded. Said fee shall be set by the Declarant in the initial amount of $150.00 with the Board of Directors and/or the Declarant reserving the right to adjust and revise said amount in their discretion from time to time.

Each Unit or any part thereof may be rented by written lease, provided that

(a) The term of any such lease shall not be less than six (6) months;

(b) The Unit Owner has obtained the prior written approval of the Association to the proposed tenant and the terms of the proposed lease;

Articles, the Bylaws, and the Rules and Regulations; the past failure of the tenant or its guests to abide by all provisions of this Declaration, the Articles, the Bylaws, and the Rules and Regulations; and the past use by tenant or its invitees or guests of any part of the Condominium in a manner offensive or objectionable to the Association or other occupants of the Condominium by reason of noise, odors, vibrations, or nuisance.

Extensions and renewals of the same lease are not subject to the transfer of ownership fee. No sub-leasing is allowed. The fee set by the Declarant in the initial amount of $150.00 may be revised or adjusted pursuant to the discretion of the declarant or the Board of Directors as they may deem necessary from time to time.

Section 2. No Severance of Ownership.

No unit owner shall execute any deed, mortgage or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to a unit without including the interests described in Section 1 of this Article VII, it being the intention to prevent any severance of the combined ownership. Any deed, mortgage or other instrument purporting, to affect one or more of these interests without including all interests, shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described. No part of these interests of any unit may be sold, leased, transferred or otherwise disposed of, except as a part of a sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of the unit to which the interests belong or as part of a sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of that part of these interests belonging to all units.

Section 3. Financing of Purchase or Lease of Units by Association.

Acquisition or lease of units by the Association or its designee, on behalf of all unit owners, may be made from the working capital and assessments for common expenses possessed by the Board of Directors, or if those funds are insufficient, the Association may borrow money to finance the acquisition or lease of the unit: provided, however, that no financing, may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any property other than the unit so to be acquired by the Association. Title to any real or personal property acquired by the Association shall be taken in the name of the Association. The Association shall act to borrow money, and acquire and convey property in the same manner as corporations formed under Chapter 188, Wisconsin Statutes.

Section 4. Waiver of Right of Partition With Respect to Units Acquired by Association.

However, the provisions of such section shall apply with respect to any purchaser of such unit from such mortgagee.

Any unit owner shall be free to convey or transfer a unit by gift to any person or persons related by blood or marriage, or to devise a unit by Will, or to pass the same by intestacy, without restriction.

ARTICLE VIII

The Board of Directors shall effect the restoration in accordance with paragraph (a) of Section 3., Article V of these By-laws.

If the Association determines to repair or reconstruct the Board of Directors shall effect the repair or reconstruction in accordance with paragraph (a) of Section 3. Article V of these By-laws. Any cost of repair or reconstruction in excess of the award shall be a common expense. If the Association determines not to repair or reconstruct or fails to vote within the 90 day period, the entire net proceeds shall be disbursed to those unit owners whose units have been taken in proportion to the percentage of interest in the common elements belonging to their respective units. If any unit owner is in default in paying common expenses, the amount of the common expenses shall be deducted from that owner's share of the proceeds. Upon receipt of the share of the proceeds, each unit owner shall execute a release, in form satisfactory to the Association, of that owner's undivided percentage interest in the common elements and shall thereafter no longer be considered a unit owner. The interests of the remaining unit owners in the common elements shall be recomputed by the Board of Directors, whose decision shall be final, to reflect the releases. The unit owner's rights to a share of the proceeds shall be subject to rights of all holders of liens on the unit.
