

Denoon Park

 (262) 679-4108

 W216S10798 Crowbar Dr. Muskego, WI 53510, ,

History
Completed in summer of 1985. Denoon is named after a dynamic early Muskego settler who published the first Norwegian newspaper in the United States and was influential in shaping the Wisconsin Constitution. His name was James Denoon Reymert.

Features
This 53-acre community park is located in the southwestern portion of the city on the northwestern shore of Lake Denoon. The park amenities include:

- two basketball goals
 - one baseball/softball diamond
 - picnicking
 - soccer fields
 - snowmobile trails
 - a walking trail
 - play equipment
 - an open shelter
 - portable restrooms
- an area designated for golf
 - lake launching access
 - 9-hole Disc Golf (Course Map)

The playground equipment provided on the site accommodates both age groups, 2-5 years and 5-12 years.

To request reservation of this park shelter, click here.

Conservation Areas
The park encompasses approximately six acres of upland woods, seven acres of planted prairie, and about 7 acres of wetlands. These conservancy areas are managed with periodic prescribed fire and invasive plant control efforts.

View Denoon Park conservation site map.

Parking
Off-street parking is available.

Denoon Park
W216S10798 Crowbar Dr.
Muskego, WI 53510

Contact
\(262\) 679-4108
Hours
5:00 AM - 10:00 PM

