■ BUYER'S OPPORTUNITY TO CONDUCT AN EVALUATION (LBP Inspection Contingency). (a) Before a Buyer is obligated under any contract to purchase target housing, the Seller shall permit the Buyer a 10-day period (unless the parties mutually agree, in writing, upon a different period of time) to conduct a risk assessment or inspection for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards. (b) Not withstanding lines 123 - 126, a Buyer may waive the opportunity to conduct the risk assessment or inspection by so indicating in writing.

If Seller has the right to cure, Seller may satisfy this contingency by: (1) delivering, within 10 days of receipt of Buyer's notice, written notice of Seller's election to abate the LBP identified by the Buyer; and (2) providing Buyer, no later than 3 days prior to closing, with certification from a certified lead supervisor or project designer, or other certified lead contractor that the identified LBP has been abated. This Offer shall be null and void if Buyer makes timely delivery of the above notice and report and: (1) Seller does not have a right to cure or (2) Seller has a right to cure but: a) Seller delivers notice that Seller will not cure or b) Seller does not timely deliver the notice of election to cure. "Abate" shall mean to permanently eliminate the identified LBP by methods such as removing, replacing, encapsulating, containing, sealing or enclosing the identified LBP, in conformance with the requirements of all applicable law.

DISCLOSURE TO CLIENTS
Under Wisconsin law, a brokerage firm (hereinafter firm) and its brokers and salespersons (hereinafter agents) owe certain duties to all parties to a transaction:
(a) The duty to provide brokerage services to you fairly and honestly.
(b) The duty to exercise reasonable skill and care in providing brokerage services to you.
(c) The duty to provide you with accurate information about market conditions within a reasonable time if you request it, unless disclosure of the information is prohibited by law.
(d) The duty to disclose to you in writing certain Material Adverse Facts about a property, unless disclosure of the information is prohibited by law. (See lines 205-208.)
(e) The duty to protect your confidentiality. Unless the law requires it, the firm and its agents will not disclose your confidential information or the confidential information of other parties. (See lines 145-160.)
(f) The duty to safeguard trust funds and other property the firm or its agents holds.
(g) The duty, when negotiating, to present contract proposals in an objective and unbiased manner and disclose the advantages and disadvantages of the proposals.

BECAUSE YOU HAVE ENTERED INTO AN AGENCY AGREEMENT WITH A FIRM, YOU ARE THE FIRM'S CLIENT. A FIRM OWES ADDITIONAL DUTIES TO YOU AS A CLIENT OF THE FIRM:
(a) The firm or one of its agents will provide, at your request, information and advice on real estate matters that affect your transaction, unless you release the firm from this duty.
(b) The firm or one of its agents must provide you with all material facts affecting the transaction, not just Adverse Facts.
(c) The firm and its agents will fulfill the firm's obligations under the agency agreement and fulfill your lawful requests that are within the scope of the agency agreement.
(d) The firm and its agents will negotiate for you, unless you release them from this duty.
(e) The firm and its agents will not place their interests ahead of your interests. The firm and its agents will not, unless required by law, give information or advice to other parties who are not the firm's clients, if giving the information or advice is contrary to your interests.
If you become involved in a transaction in which another party is also the firm's client (a "multiple representation relationship"), different duties may apply.

MULTIPLE REPRESENTATION RELATIONSHIPS AND DESIGNATED AGENCY
■ A multiple representation relationship exists if a firm has an agency agreement with more than one client who is a party in the same transaction. If you and the firm's other clients in the transaction consent, the firm may provide services through designated agency, which is one type of multiple representation relationship.
■ Designated agency means that different agents with the firm will negotiate on behalf of you and the other client or clients in the transaction, and the firm's duties to you as a client will remain the same. Each agent will provide information, opinions, and advice to the client for whom the agent is negotiating, to assist the client in the negotiations. Each client will be able to receive information, opinions, and advice that will assist the client, even if the information, opinions, or advice gives the client advantages in the negotiations over the firm's other clients. An agent will not reveal any of your confidential information to another party unless required to do so by law.

■ If a designated agency relationship is not authorized by you or other clients in the transaction you may still authorize or reject a different type of multiple representation relationship in which the firm may provide brokerage services to more than one client in a transaction but neither the firm nor any of its agents may assist any client with information, opinions, and advice which may favor the interests of one client over any other client. Under this neutral approach, the same agent may represent more than one client in a transaction.

■ If you do not consent to a multiple representation relationship the firm will not be allowed to provide brokerage services to more than one client in the transaction.

CHECK ONLY ONE OF THE THREE BELOW:

[ ] The same firm may represent me and the other party as long as the same agent is not representing us both (multiple representation relationship with designated agency).

[x] The same firm may represent me and the other party, but the firm must remain neutral regardless if one or more different agents are involved (multiple representation relationship without designated agency).

[ ] The same firm cannot represent both me and the other party in the same transaction (I reject multiple representation relationships).

NOTE: All clients who are parties to this agency agreement consent to the selection checked above. You may modify this selection by written notice to the firm at any time. Your firm is required to disclose to you in your agency agreement the commission or fees that you may owe to your firm. If you have any questions about the commission or fees that you may owe based upon the type of agency relationship you select with your firm, you should ask your firm before signing the agency agreement.

SUBAGENCY

Your firm may, with your authorization in the agency agreement, engage other firms (subagent firms) to assist your firm by providing brokerage services for your benefit. A subagent firm and the agents associated with the subagent firm will not put their own interests ahead of your interests. A subagent firm will not, unless required by law, provide advice or opinions to other parties if doing so is contrary to your interests.

PLEASE REVIEW THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY. An agent can answer your questions about brokerage services, but if you need legal advice, tax advice, or a professional home inspection, contact an attorney, tax advisor, or home inspector.

This disclosure is required by section 452.135 of the Wisconsin statutes and is for information only. It is a plain language summary of the duties owed to you under section 452.133 (2) of the Wisconsin statutes.

■ CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE TO CLIENTS: The Firm and its agents will keep confidential any information given to the Firm or its agents in confidence, or any information obtained by the Firm and its agents that a reasonable person would want to be kept confidential, unless the information must be disclosed by law or you authorize the Firm to disclose particular information. The Firm and its agents shall continue to keep the information confidential after the Firm is no longer providing brokerage services to you.

The following information is required to be disclosed by law:

1) Material Adverse Facts, as defined in section 452.01 (5g) of the Wisconsin statutes (see lines 205-208).
2) Any facts known by the Firm and its agents that contradict any information included in a written inspection report on the property or real estate that is the subject of the transaction.

To ensure that the Firm and its agents are aware of what specific information you consider confidential, you may list that information below (see lines 157-158). At a later time, you may also provide the Firm with other information you consider to be confidential.

Cooperation includes providing access to the Property for showing purposes and presenting offers and other proposals from these firms to Seller. Within seven days of the date of this Listing, Seller agrees to deliver to the Firm a written list of all such Protected Buyers. NOTE: If Seller fails to timely deliver this list to the Firm, Seller may be liable to the Firm for damages and costs. The following other buyers _____ _____ are excluded from this Listing until _____ [INSERT DATE].
