Subcontractor's Waiver and Release of Lien

Upon Subcontractor's receipt of the check from THD At-Home Services, Inc. with respect to the above referenced job, this document shall be effective to waive and relinquish and forever release the right of the Subcontractor or any right of any other party claiming under Subcontractor, to any lien, stop notice or any other right against a labor or material bond on the job. Subcontractor represents that all parties or laborers furnishing services or materials on the job have been fully paid for their services or materials. Subcontractor agrees to cause the prompt release of any liens claimed by these parties or laborers. Subcontractor further agrees to hold harmless and indemnify THD At-Home Services, Inc. and the above named customer and the owner of title to the above referenced job site from and against all costs and expenses arising from or by reason of any lien or any release or discharge of any such lien. This waiver and release covers the final payment to Subcontractor for all labor, services, equipment, or material furnished on the job, except for disputed claims for extra work. Before any recipient of this document relies upon it, the parties should verify evidence of payment to Subcontractor. Lead Paint – If lead paint was present I confirm that Lead Safe Renovation practices were followed and a certified renovator was on site during the operations.

Subcontractor acknowledges and agrees to the above terms and conditions.
