All present and future Owners of Units, allowed tenants of those Owners and any other occupants of Units, employees of Owners, or any other persons who in any manner use or come upon the Condominium or any part of the Condominium shall be subject to and shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation of the Association ("Articles") and the Bylaws and rules and regulations adopted pursuant to those instruments, as those instruments may be amended from time to time. The acceptance of a deed or conveyance, or the entering into of a lease (subject to any leasing restrictions in the Bylaws), or the entering into occupancy of any part of any Unit shall constitute an acceptance by the Owner, tenant or occupant of the provisions of those instruments, as they may be amended from time to time. The provisions contained in the instruments shall be covenants running with the land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in the Unit, as though the provisions were recited and fully stipulated in each deed, conveyance or lease. In the event that a Unit Owner or resident has a claim to assert against the Association or any member of the Board where the claim relates to or arises from the member's service on the Board, that claim must be submitted to binding arbitration, with Resolute Systems, Inc. or such other arbitrator or arbitrator facility agreed to by the parties, or by the chief judge of the county if the parties can't agree upon an arbitrator and Resolute Systems, Inc. is no longer in business or has a conflict. The unit owner(s) and the Association shall each pay half the cost of the arbitration. Such claims must be commenced with the arbitrator within one year of the date that the Unit Owner or resident knew or should have known of the underlying facts giving rise to the claim. Such claims may also be submitted to non-binding mediation before or during arbitration at the election of the claimant, with both sides paying half the cost of the mediator. The Association shall also have the option of arbitrating a claim against a Unit Owner (any non-assessment collection and non-declaratory judgment-related claim) using the same procedure above.

B. Attorney's Fees. The prevailing party in any claim brought by or against the Association or a Director by a Unit Owner or resident shall be entitled to recover their attorney's fees and costs. In addition, for any claim that is mediated or arbitrated as set forth in Section 11.A. above, the Association is entitled to recover its pre-mediation and/or pre-arbitration attorney's fees and costs if it is ultimately the prevailing party.

C. Damages. The Association may assess a Unit Owner the actual damages the Association incurs from the Unit Owner's (its residents, occupants, or guests) failure to abide by the Condominium Declaration, Bylaws, or Rules and Regulations (the "Condominium Documents"). Where appropriate, the Association may also fine for violations of the Condominium Documents, and a schedule of progressive fines shall be set forth in the Rules and Regulations. There shall be a Grievance Procedure set forth in the Rules and Regulations, whereby a Unit Owner may contest the alleged violation. The decision of the Grievance Committee is final and binding. The Association may also assess to the Unit Owner interest and late fees on unpaid fines and assessments, as well as attorney's fees and costs incident to the Unit Owner's failure to abide by the Condominium Documents.

D. Rules and regulations (in addition to the Bylaws) concerning the use of the Units and the common and limited common elements, including provisions limiting keeping of animals and other pets, may be established and amended by the Board of Directors. Copies of these rules and regulations shall be furnished by the Board of Directors to each Unit Owner prior to the effective date of the rules and regulations.

E. The Association acting by and in the discretion of its Board of Directors, the right to grant to the City of Cudahy, Wisconsin, or public or semi-public utility companies, easements and rights-of-way for the erection, construction and maintenance of all poles, wires, pipes and conduits for the transmission of electricity, gas, water, telephone and for other purposes; for sewer, storm water drains, gas mains, water pipes and mains, and similar service, and for performing any public or quasi-public utility function that the Board of Directors may deem fit and proper for the improvement and benefit of the Condominium. These easements and rights-of-way shall be confined, so far as possible, in underground pipes or conduits, with the necessary rights of ingress and egress and the rights to do whatever may be necessary to carry out the purposes for which this easement is created.

12. AMENDMENT OF DECLARATION

A. This Declaration may be amended with the written consent of at least 75% of the Unit Owners. A Unit Owner's written consent is not effective unless it is approved by the first mortgagee or land contract vendor of the Unit, if any, to the extent set forth in the Act.

13. ADDITIONAL RIGHTS OF LENDERS

A. As to the holder of any mortgage and as to any land contract vendor ("mortgagee") of a Unit which has notified the Association in writing delivered or mailed by certified mail to the place of service of process stated in Section 9 of this Declaration that it desires to receive notice of the following matters:

(2) The Board of Directors shall give the lender by mail a copy of the notice of default which is given to any Unit owner on any failure to comply with or violation of any of the provisions of this Declaration, the Articles or the Bylaws and rules and regulations, at the time of notice to any Unit owner; and

(4) Use hazard insurance proceeds for losses to the Condominium property for other than the repair of the property, except as authorized by law.

C. A lender who comes into possession of a Unit pursuant to the remedies provided in the mortgage or land contract, a foreclosure of the mortgage or land contract, or a deed (or assignment) in lieu of foreclosure, shall take the Unit free of any claims for unpaid assessments or charges in favor of the Association against the Unit which accrued prior to the time the lender came into possession of the Unit.

D. Notwithstanding Section 12 of this Declaration, this Section 13 shall not be amended unless all lenders have given their prior written approval.

14. PAYMENT OF COMMON EXPENSES

The owner of each Unit shall pay a fractional percentage of the common expenses represented by the number "1" divided by the total number of Units included in the Condominium (108).

15. NOTICE OF UTILITY AND DRAINAGE EASEMENTS

The land which is included in the Condominium and the expansion area is subject to various utility and drainage easements which arc recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Milwaukee County, Wisconsin.

21. ACCESS TO UNITS

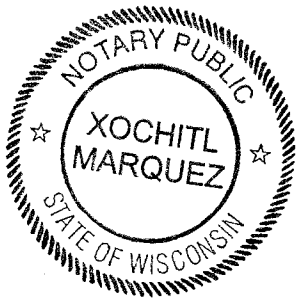

By acceptance of a deed to a Unit, each Unit Owner grants a right of access to the Unit to the manager, the managing agent and any other person authorized by the Board of Directors, the manager or the managing agent to make inspections, to correct any condition originating in the Unit and threatening another Unit or the common or limited common elements; to install, alter or repair mechanical or electrical services or other common or limited common elements in the Unit or elsewhere in the building. Requests for entry shall be made in advance, and entry shall be scheduled for a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner. Provided, in case of an emergency, the right of entry shall be immediate, whether the Unit Owner is present at the time or not.

22. STORM WATER DRAINAGE FACILITIES

The STORM WATER drainage facilities, including a retention pond, are common elements of the Condominium. All costs associated with the repair and maintenance of these improvements shall be a common expense. The Association, acting through its Board of Directors, may adopt rules and regulations with respect to access to and use of the retention pond.

This Fifth Amended and Restated Declaration complies with the requirements of the Declaration and the applicable law, Wis.
